GIANT DRIVE IS GERMAN PLAN INVASION LOSS ENORMOUS NEUTRALS OPPOSE KAISER

MONITOR FACTORIES REDUCIBLE ACTIVITIES

Twenty Thousand More Men
Are Spared From Front to Swell the Number Already
Busy at Big Krupp Works

HINDENBURG SPEEDS UP WHOLE EMPIRE

Submarine Efforts to Stop
England-Bound Supplies Is a
Portion of Plan to Force
That Country Into Peace

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.

ESSEN, Germany, Oct. 16.—Twenty thousand new workers will this week join the force of 70,000 already employed at the great Krupp gun works in the gigantic task of turning out shells and guns to feed the German armies.

The addition of this huge force is one step in Germany's renewed efforts to win the war under the direction of Field-Marshal von Hindenburg, now chief of staff. Many skilled workmen are being recalled from the front to aid in speeding up the production of war supplies and barracks are being built here to house them.

From conversations with Krupp directors, with August Thyssen, the "Carnegie of Germany," and other industrial leaders, three facts become apparent regarding the German campaign since Hindenburg assumed leadership.

GERMAN PLANS.

First—Germany plans to maintain her supremacy in the artillery branch of warfare by increasing the supply of guns and ammunition.

Second—By renewed submarine efforts she plans to stop contraband going to England from neutral European countries, to halt ammunition shipments from America to England and to stop the flow of munitions from carrying troops to Europe.

Third—By an offensive against Russia and Rumania, while maintaining an iron wall defensive in the west, she plans to bring England between the jaws of Hindenburg's military vise and pinch her until she makes peace.

Krupps may be said to be getting second wind. Industries throughout the entire Rhine and Ruhr valleys, where shells roll out weekly by the millions, are preparing the army for the final stretch. A visit to the great gun plants here give one an impression of the gigantic plans Germany is making.

SECURE AGAINST RAIDS.

Essen now feels so secure against possible air raids that the anti-aircraft guns have been removed. Defense of the city was found unnecessary because the smoke rising from a hundred thousand chimneys night and day forms a thick cloud over the entire Rhine and Ruhr valleys, making it impossible for aeroplanes to distinguish between the industrial plants and the city.

In the latest allied air raid three children were killed and the roof knocked off one house near Essen, but the Krupp establishments were not touched.

The Krupp factories are so enormous and the machinery so great that workmen look like dwarfs. The seven workers, numbering 20,000 and dressed in overall bloomers, add an unusual touch.

SCIENCE DIRECTS.

In this great plant science studies every lesson of sea battles and artillery duels and works out the details. The manufacture of armorplate and big guns is a tedious and exact series of acts as when a pharmacist prepares a prescription.

In one building eleven hundred men were working on only big guns. In another building smaller guns were being drilled. In still another thirty-three hundred men were working on being packed, rolled, pressed and polished before their final marine inspection and shipment to Kiel.

We were the guests of Director von Bodenhausen who had visited the steel works both in Pittsburgh and Gary, Ind., and has met Judge Gary and other American steel officials. Bodenhausen said he saw no chances for peace now, but he echoed the views of some of the industrial leaders that if the United States would stop ammunition shipments to Europe the war would end.

One Day of Great War

Pressure against the Rumanians along the Transylvania front continues unabated, according to the latest official reports, and at one point at least King Ferdinand's forces have been driven back well within their own territory.

This critical point for the Rumanians lies southwest of Kronstadt, in the southern reaches of the Torzburger pass, where they are making a determined stand at Rucuru, some seven miles south of the border. The Teutonic thrust here is aimed in the direction of Bucharest, which lies seventy-five miles across the Rumanian plain from its edge at Canpung ten miles southwest of Rucuru.

On the Somme front in northern France the entente forces are keeping up their unrelenting drive.

The French last night, after having checked the German counter-attacks on the positions won Saturday in their "pocketing" of the Somme, resumed the offensive north of the river. According to Paris today, the success in penetrating German positions at Sailly-Saillig, pushing up to the edge of the Bapaume road. Renewed fighting brought on by a German counter-attack was in progress when the official report was issued.

The British recently have been advancing in the vicinity of the Stuff redoubt and the Schwaben redoubt, on their northerly flank. Last night the Germans made a strong attack on the new British positions near the Schwaben fortification, but the British held back with heavy losses, London declares.

In Macedonia the entente forces have assumed the strong offensive of the Monastir-Sofia line and in the bend of the Cerna. Along the line of the Struma, on the eastern end of the Macedonian front, the British have pushed their outposts further towards Demir-Hissar, patrols having entered the town of Bursa, eight miles southwest of Demir-Hissar.

THREE NATIONS FIGHT GERMAN DIVER POLICIES

Norway, Holland and Spain
Now Score Operations of Submarines.

BERLIN, Sunday, Oct. 15, via London, Oct. 16.—Norway, Holland and Spain are now playing the leading parts in Germany's international submarine problem to the subordination of the United States, which so long and so often has held the center of the stage.

The Associated Press correspondent discussed the present situation today with Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, under secretary for foreign affairs, who indicated that the tables had been cleared and that no negotiations were in progress as far as the United States was concerned. He outlined developments regarding other neutrals.

The case of Holland is simplest. It concerns only the Bloomersdijk, which was sunk off the New England coast by the German submarine U-53. Germany is unwilling to accept the cable version of the circumstances under which the Bloomersdijk was sunk and is convinced the submarine commander must have kept within the German prize regulations as strictly enjoined. Full compensation has been offered in event the commander exceeded his instructions.

Spain's grievances have to do with the sinking of fruit steamers. Strictly speaking, these are valid prizes, but the cargo is contraband, bound for hostile ports.

The Spanish government, however, has pointed out that the prosperity of the country and particularly of the great class of small fruit raisers, has been seriously injured by interruptions of this trade, and Germany has offered to let such ships pass unmolested if they are provided with proper certificates from German consuls and if the entire voyage is limited to a single voyage. No reply has been received.

The Norwegian measures barring submarines from Norwegian waters, in accordance with the British memorandum, is regarded as incompatible with Norwegian neutrality. No exhaustive report on the legal aspects of the questions has as yet reached Dr. Zimmermann's hands, but the under secretary said the matter undoubtedly would be the subject of a strong protest to Norway. He took the position that Norway was unjustified under international law in differentiating among classes of warships and making rules apply to one specific class.

Fighting in Transylvania Has Increased in Fury As Army of the Latest Belligerents
Stiffened by Reinforcements

BERLIN, Oct. 16 (by wireless to Sayville).—The Rumanian second army, in its retreat in Transylvania, lost approximately two divisions, says the Overseas News Agency. "The Rumanian first army and the larger part of the second army have been virtually annihilated." The report continues:

Transylvania today is clear of the Rumanians, except for small sections near the border. At the same time the Rumanians hope of obtaining aid for Transylvania have been frustrated. The entire Transylvanian population and the better Rumanian element feel they have been delivered from a nightmare, as the Rumanians have been expelled after a short reign of terror.

Berlin reports that strong attacks were made by the Russians yesterday in Volhynia, and that the day's official announcement states that these assaults broke down with severe losses for the Russians.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Teutonic troops have broken through Gymes Pass and invaded Northwestern Rumania, according to Berlin dispatches.

Severe fighting is going on on Rumanian soil near the town of Palanka. The Austro-Germans are attempting to drive southward along the Teru-Olena railway to cut the main railway line supplying the northern Rumanian armies.

In the extreme north, near the Bukowinian frontier, the Rumanians are being driven back upon their own border, but along the whole southern frontier of Transylvania they are vigorously counter-attacking. South-east of Kronstadt the Rumanians have crushed the invader's attempts to march southward into Rumania and have won local successes.

FIGHT FOR PASS.

The fighting in Southern Transylvania is becoming more violent in the north of the Cerna river, where the Rumanians are pressing their counter-attacks and have thrown back Austrian troops for a considerable distance.

In Macedonia the battle around the bend of the Cerna river, where Bulgars and Serbs have been engaged for several days, is continuing with the outcome still in doubt.

The situation on the Rumanian frontier occupies the leading position on the news and editorial pages of the London newspapers. The Rumanians, according to the latest official statement, have been forced back six or seven miles at one point in their own country. They are making a stand at Bucuru, which is a small town toward the southern end of the Torzburger Pass. At Rucuru the Austro-Germans are well below the highest level of the pass. South of this town the road runs ten miles through a rolling country to the rail head of Canpung, which is practically on the edge of the Rumanian plain and seventy-five miles from Bucharest.

ON RUMANIAN SOIL.

The Times notes: "An advance into Rumania through the Torzburger Pass and the Rumanians are fighting on their own soil at Rucuru. Apparently they have temporarily succeeded in stopping all the southern approaches of Torzburger Pass."

Further north the enemy penetrated to the crest of Citez Pass, but was then driven back in a fierce encounter. In the other passes the enemy is making no progress but until effective help reaches the Rumanian second army, we must expect varying fortunes in this district.

BRITISH TAKE TOWN.

British forces on the Struma front in Macedonia are active on the flank of their line east of the river and have pushed their outposts further northeast in the direction of Demir-Hissar, according to today's official announcement of the operations of the Saloniki army. The village of Bursak, eight miles southwest of Demir-Hissar, has been entered by British patrols, who drove back Bulgarian detachments. The statement follows:

On the Struma our patrols have penetrated Bursak and driven back enemy detachments. A successful bombing attack on the Buk Erldge was carried out by the royal naval air service.

On the Dolran front there is no change in the situation.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 16.—Rumanian troops have occupied the villages of Stanagimogon, Gocadoc Villages and Colenstra Catul in their new campaign against the Teutons in the Alta Valley region, it was officially announced today.

OXFORD MAN BLAMED FOR CHURCH LOSS

Episcopal Clergymen Appear to Prosecute Solicitor for Parishes, Who Is Alleged to Have Misappropriated Funds

Five Churches of Oakland and San Francisco Complain of Actions of Graduate of English University; Drink Cause

Alleged to have victimized five parishes of the Episcopal church, one in Oakland and four in San Francisco, Edward F. Gordon, Oxford graduate, writer and scholar, was brought before Police Judge Mathew Brady in San Francisco, this morning charged with petty larceny. A delegation of prominent divines appeared against him.

The church of the Advent in East Oakland and the Mission of the Good Samaritan, St. Paul's, St. Peter's, and St. Stephen's churches in San Francisco, were all the victims of Gordon's thirst for gain, according to the charges made against him by the clergymen.

The capture of the accused was brought about through the alertness of Rev. W. E. Couper, rector of St. Paul's Church in San Francisco, who left his duties in the middle of a busy Sunday morning, picked up Patrolman Al Lean of the Richmond station and hurried to the home of a parishioner, where Gordon was endeavoring to collect funds. The man was charged specifically with petty larceny, but it was understood that a serious crime may be laid at his door. The clergymen declare he should be severely dealt with.

MANY IN COURT.

Among those who appeared against Gordon today were Reverends J. P. Turner of Good Samaritan, Gordon H. D. Wright of St. Stephen's, Charles Miel of St. Peter's and W. E. Couper of St. Paul's. Rev. William R. Wheeler, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Oakland, was not on hand.

Gordon's method was exceedingly simple. Recommended to the churches on the "highest" authority, he would appear before the parishioners and with strong letters attacking his character and churchmanship, he was hired on a commission basis to solicit funds for the support of the several parishes. His first work was done at St. Paul's, where he collected $1,000 for the church of the Advent in Oakland and the other San Francisco parishes. Soon complaints began to come in that he had been collecting money.

It was no part of Gordon's duty to collect any of the funds. He was supposed to canvass for subscriptions, but the collecting was done by others. He obtained money from only one of his parishioners but obtained money from a great number in St. Paul's parish. We have been on the lookout for him and see fit to warn our people to notify us on his appearance. I printed a note to that effect in my parish circular this month.

Rev. W. E. Couper, who captured Gordon, told of the arrest. He said: "I was at the church when I received a phone from one of my communicants, who hurried there with a police officer. He said, 'Gordon, I have had a talk with Judge Brady and he tells me that the man can get only six months on this charge. His fault, has he not? We must see fit to make a more serious accusation against him.'"

Famous Potash Case Thrown Out of Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Henry E. Lee, capitalist and locator of rich potash deposits in San Bernardino county, who filed suit in connection with the California potash war that for some years past has dragged through several courts, demanding $300,000 damages from the American Trona Company, a local defense agency and other defendants, alleging false arrest, lost his case today in the civil courts when Judge Van Houtte granted a non-suit.

There are criminal cases still pending in the matter. Lee has several times before the courts of Southern California in connection with his efforts to hold onto the potash deposits now in the hands of the companies named.

Accused of Plot to Violate Neutrality

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Fred Dato, Joseph Culver, J. O'Reilly and Julian Trene, all of whom are accused of participation in a plot to violate United States neutrality by smuggling arms into Lower California for the supposed purpose of overthrowing the federal government, were before Federal Judge O. A. Trippett this afternoon. Dato is a brother-in-law of Governor Cantu. Culver is a prominent Long Beach business man. O'Reilly is an official of a sporting goods company of Los Angeles and Trene is a Mexican rancher.

Has Carranza's Family Fled From Capital? Test Case Against County to Be Brought

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The reported flight of the members of General Carranza's family from Mexico City was discussed today by Secretary Lansing, who said the State Department had information that the family will be going either to Saltillo, their old home, or to Queretaro, the provisional capital, and the seat of the national convention, set for October 21.

POLICE HERE NOT TO HELP GREET TRAIN

Oakland Republican Women
Unafraid of Bourbon Demonstrations, But Officers Across
Bay Are Asked to Watch

Hughes Feminine Campaign-
ers Will Be Given Warm Welcome in Oakland on Arrival of Special Train Tomorrow

The Republican women of Oakland, scenting no probability of such interference as the Hughes women's campaign special, when it arrives here tomorrow as made Portland temporarily a place of rioting, will not ask police aid prior to their welcome to the campaign. Across the bay it is not altogether certain that the Hughes women aboard the train will be so calmly greeted, for already arrangements have been made for the San Francisco police to "debouch" their numbers along the line of progress.

Plans for the reception were whipped into final shape at a meeting held today of the women's Committee of Oak Hundred. The members were told that the Oakland would not care for bluecoat guardians, and would be able peacefully to handle the situation there. Moreover, they outlined a complete program for the local reception.

The situation across the bay has been complicated by the fact that the All-Parities league for Wilson today called the women's league to meet at the Ferry building tomorrow prior to the time the Hughes women are expected to arrive there from this side of the bay. San Francisco members of the Committee of Oak Hundred declared at the meeting that they did not fear for the outcome. They have extended to the Wilson partisans the privilege of asking and having answered whatever questions they desire, and the Hughes women believe this courtesy will result in the extinction of reciprocal kindness from the Bourbon camp.

THE PURPOSE.

The last disturbance on the line of progress of the Hughes women's campaign train was at Portland, Oregon, last Saturday. All day the rival factions shouted themselves hoarse across the land streets, flitting from point to point where perils threatened and altogether creating such a fuss that two of the leaders were finally lodged in the city hall for safety.

The chief points of the reception of the campaign train here and across the bay is indicated in the following outline:

12:30 a. m.—Train reaches Sixteenth street.
12:30 p. m.—Luncheon at Hotel Oakland.
2:30 p. m.—Party leaves for San Francisco.
5 p. m.—Arrive in San Francisco.
6 p. m.—Dinner at Hotel St. Francis.
8 p. m.—Mass meeting at Scottish Rites Temple.

Miss Margaret Johannsen has issued a call which will bring the Democratic women to the Ferry building tomorrow afternoon. She invites them to a protest against the "billion dollar women's train," as she terms it. The members of the party aboard the train are as follows:

Miss Mary Antin, lecturer and author; Miss Helen Varick Boswell, chairman industrial and social conditions, General Federation of Women's clubs, president of the Women's Bureau of New York; Mrs. Katherine E. Edson of California, widely known for her work on industrial and social conditions; Mrs. Robert H. Brown, president of the Chicago executive board of the Federation of Labor, member of the committee of the American Federation of Labor, advisory committee of the Illinois free State committee of the American Federation of Labor, Northwestern university settlement.

Mrs. Abbie Krebs will join the train here on its way to the Golden Gate and San Diego.

TRAIN TO BE MET.

The train will be met by a procession of anti-Bourbon women, led by the women in the train being assigned to leading Oakland women, who have been charged "to deliver them" to other leading women in San Francisco at the ferry, when a special Key Route boat heads there at a dozen or so of women urging the election of Hughes as president and Governor Hiram W. Johnson as United States senators. The visitors stayed but two hours, then left for Reno.

A short speech of welcome will be made by E. P. Nichols of Berkeley, chairman of the County Central Committee. The party will proceed to City Hall, where the speakers will be introduced between Eighth and Ninth, where short speeches are to be made, thence the following route will be taken: to Broadway, to Telegraph, to Bancroft, to Shattuck avenue to the Shattuck Hotel.

OUT TO BERKELEY.

Here, between 10 and 11, rapid-fire speeches will be made and the train will again to the University of California campus. At Sather gate, more three-minute talks will begin.

A branch of the party will cut off from the body and proceed to the Alameda City Hall at 12 M., where one or two of the speakers will be introduced.

At the luncheon at the Hotel Oakland tomorrow about 250 women are expected to welcome the crusaders.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 16.—The women's Hughes campaign special train arrived here today in the interest of Charles F. Hughes, Republican candidate for president. The eastern women were greeted by several scores of Sacramento women and escorted to a hotel where a meeting was held. Speeches were made by a dozen or so of women urging the election of Hughes as president and Governor Hiram W. Johnson as United States senators. The visitors stayed but two hours, then left for Reno.

Death Takes Last Bout of Billy Jordan

"BILLY" JORDAN.

Famous Announcer of Ring Battles Is Summoned

LET 'ER GO

And so they've laid you low,
Billy Jordan,
Well, the best of us must go,
Billy Jordan.
In the game you played your part,
Big and honest from the start,
And its dying broke your heart,
Billy Jordan.

You have seen them rise and fall,
Billy Jordan,
You have introduced them all,
Billy Jordan.
Clean of heart, without a foe,
Fate has dealt the knockout blow,
Sad, sad, sad, "let 'er go!"
Billy Jordan.

YOUNTVILLE, Oct. 16.—"Billy"

Jordan of San Francisco, the famous prizefight announcer, died here today in the Veterans' Home. He was 84 years old, both a soldier and sailor veteran of the civil war and was once wealthy.

"Let-er-go Billy," as he was known to fight fans throughout the United States, had passed the announcer in virtually every great ring battle on the Pacific coast in the last forty years, traveling thousands of miles, introducing thousands of prizefighters. The last fight he officiated at was the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno, Nev.

In his younger days he was successively a boxer and a sporting writer, coming to San Francisco from Boston, his birthplace, in 1855. During a residence in Japan he amassed a fortune, which he later lost, and during the last few years his friends rallied to his support.

BEGAN AS BOXER.

Jordan started his professional career as a boxer, appearing in the padded ring for two years. He came to San Francisco in 1865, remaining five years. In 1870 he enlisted in the United States navy, serving in the Civil War on the frigate Colorado, joining Farragut's fleet at New Orleans. He was transferred to the sloop-of-war Richmond. Discharged, he returned to San Francisco from Boston, his birthplace, in 1877, when he again went back to Yokohama as chief of police. Jordan lost his fortune and returned to San Francisco. He had been here ever since.

FEIT LOSS OF GAME.

When California in a moment of pique stamped the lid down on the boxing game it broke Jordan's heart. Recently San Francisco fight fans united in a monster benefit for Jordan and raised sufficient funds to relieve him from distress for some time to come. It was Jordan who first introduced Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, James J. Jeffries, Tom Sharkey, Jack Johnson, Tommy Burns, Al Wiggles, Battling Nelson, Joe Gans and other celebrities to fight fans. The last world's championship bout in Havana was the only one in twenty years that Jordan did not have the privilege of introducing the new champion.

Old Billy was connected with the game all his life and could remember and tell distinctly the incidents of such fights as when Tom Fitz defeated Yankee Sullivan in 1848. Although a Bostonian by birth, he was a Californian by adoption, having come to the Golden Gate as a wanderer, not a miner, in 1855.

FOUGHT AGAINST KUSMEN.

During the civil war Billy and his two brothers took up arms—but on opposing sides. The brothers were the gray and young Billy the blue—and that is why he went to join the slender group of remaining valiants at Yountville.

His only near relative here is Miss Lillian Chamberlain, a niece and the daughter of his sister, Mrs. Annie Chamberlain, whose home is in the East.

Kaiser Receives American Officer

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—Emperor William, while visiting Schonbrunn, the Austrian imperial palace, recently received Captain Allan T. Briggs, United States military attaché at Vienna, who is about to leave the capital, says an Overseas News Agency statement today.

The emperor also received the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, Baron Buriun; the Austro-Hungarian minister at Berlin, Prince Hohenhausen-Schillingfurst; and the Austro-Hungarian minister of war, General Von Krobatin.

INFIRMARY TO OCCUPY OLD SITE OF COLLEGE

Location in East Oakland,
Selected Unanimously by the Welfare Board, Receives
Approval of the Supervisors

PLAN SPECIAL TAX RATHER THAN BONDS

Ten-Acre Site to Cost the County $52,500 Selected by Officials Makes Possible the Removal of County Shame

Acting in harmony, the Board of Supervisors this morning voted to purchase the California College site for the new county infirmary. The site selected by the Public Welfare Commission.

The board first voted down a proposition to purchase property at Twenty-eighth and Filbert streets at a price of $75,000, and then agreed to put through a resolution of intention to purchase the old college property of ten acres in East Oakland at a final reduced price of $52,500. The action of the board means the fulfillment of the agreement to abide by the decision of the board of public welfare which investigated all of the suggested sites and recommended the one chosen today.

It was expected to vote on the resolution today in the committee of the whole, but the procedure necessitated postponement until next Thursday when the resolution will be formally passed up to the board. Next Monday will probably see the adoption of the resolution of intent to purchase the site.

Consummation of the deal will be made on November 20, allowing time for advertising the notice of intention to purchase, as indicated by today's action. Providing that the board's action, the supervisors will then be in a position to call for submission of plans and specifications for the new hospital.

PLAN NO BOND ISSUE.

That a bond issue will not be necessary to raise the price of the institution, estimated at close to $1,000,000, is the opinion of members of the board who have figured the comparative cost of bonding the county and of raising the money by direct taxation.

Believing that the people of Alameda county are anxious that the disgraceful condition of affairs at the county infirmary and hospital be remedied as soon as possible, Supervisor John F. Mullins is of the opinion that there would be no objection to the necessary tax levy of probably 10 cents next July. He said:

It will take six months for architects to prepare plans and specifications, and then will run the matter over until next July. At that time a levy of 10 cents will raise $250,000 to commence work, which sum would be about all that could be used during next year. The following year the principal of a $1,000,000 bond issue would not be hanging over.

Supervisor Charles W. Hoyer of Hayward, chairman of the hospital committee, has stated that he is in favor of a bond issue in order that the county infirmary may be completed at once instead of being constructed on the unit plan as is now being done.

When the site for the hospital is finally purchased the board will decide.

DEATH WINS EVERY FOOT AT THIEPVAL

Germans Swarm From Packed Dugouts to Give Desperate Hand-to-Hand Combat With the Invading Allied Forces

British Guns, After Week of Terrific Struggle at Last Command Grandcourt Valley, Swept Clear of Foe

(Copyright, 1916, by Associated Press) BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE, Sunday, Oct. 15, via London Oct. 16.—In completing the capture of Schwaben redoubt, on the ridge above Thiepval the British took a prisoner for every yard of front, or 250 for a front of less than 300 yards; not to mention the number killed by the artillery preparation and in hand-to-hand fighting before the survivors surrendered. The Germans manning the trench and those in the reserve crowded into one line back of the parapet. This gives an idea of the importance the Germans attached to that last bit of high ground along the old trench line south of the Thiepval ridge which their desperate resistance characterized as the most precious two-acre plot in all France.

After the British got the first half of the redoubt the Germans made repeated counter attacks to recover possession of it, and for the last week there has been no cessation of fighting. Now the British look down all along the valley to Grandcourt and it is impossible apparently for the Germans to maintain batteries in that area.

2500 IN ONE DUGOUT. Between the new British positions and the river along the old front line fortifications German infantry commanded by British guns from two sides still stick to their maze of trenches, going and coming like woodchucks through their underground galleries. A German prisoner reveals that in this neighborhood there is a record size dugout capable of holding 2500 men.

The big garrisons which the Germans maintain for the most part, are to their advantage, rushing out when there is any access in the shell fire to try to repair the damage done. When they are observed the British guns let loose on them. Finally, when nothing but wreckage of trenches remains and only the dugouts are intact, the British infantry charges to gain another section of ground.

In taking the redoubt the British captured a portion of staff redoubt in the same region, the British took 100 prisoners with a loss of thirty-five men.

Along the center of the battle line the British have made some attacks in the last week, though not in great strength. They succeeded in some places and failed in others against the heavy German resistance. On the whole it was the quietest week since the beginning of the grand offensive.

PROBE GERMAN DEFENSES. Oct. 16.—French troops penetrated the German defenses in Bally and Salzeil, northeast of Comblès, last night, occupying houses on the edge of the Enpauze-Peronne road, it was officially announced today. The Germans violently counter-attacked and the battle was still raging early today.

SCHWABEN STILL HELD. LONDON, Oct. 16.—Aided by liquid fire and heavy cannonading, the Germans launched an unusually heavy attack against the Schwaben redoubt, but were repulsed with heavy losses, General Haig reported today.

South of the Ancre the Germans shell British positions heavily at intervals throughout the night. North of Courcellette a small enemy bombing attack was repulsed.

Northeast of Ypres, southeast of St. Eloi and east of Ploegsteert, British machine guns entered enemy trenches, inflicting casualties and taking prisoners.

ALLIES HURLED BACK. BERLIN, Oct. 16.—British troops yesterday attacked the German positions north of Gueudecourt, three miles south of Papeau, and penetrated the German first line, but the ground was recaptured after a counter-attack, says the official statement issued today by the German headquarters staff.

No Immigration Probe, According to Wilson

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson denied today that he is here on any business connected with the government immigration service as indicated in reports recently circulated. He will address a Wilson mass meeting here tomorrow night. I have been campaigning for President Wilson since I knew nothing of reports that Senator Phelan and I will investigate the immigration bureau here," he said.

Campaign Orders Issued by Wilson

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Oct. 16.—President Wilson gave personal directions as to how his supporters should speak for him during a conference here today between the President and members of the Wilson Volunteers, headed by James Phelan, who will campaign for him among the labor voters of New York.

The President was notified today by telegram of the death of the father of Colonel Edward T. Brown of Atlanta, Georgia, one of his close friends and golfing companions.

Notables on Ship In Diver's Path Lafayette Brings Caruso and Others

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The French liner steamer Lafayette arrived early today from Bordeaux, bringing among her passengers Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, John Barrett, Enrico Caruso, Frank A. Munsey and S. S. McClure.

Officers of the ship said that they had received warning by wireless when in mid-ocean to look out for submarines near Nantuxet. A new course was immediately set and the ship approached the American coast at a point far southward of the usual route. No suspicious craft were sighted, they said.

COLLEGE SITE FOR INFIRMARY

Supervisors Choose Location Advised by Welfare Board.

side upon the procedure to be taken in raising the funds.

PICK SITE RECOMMENDED. The California College site at Fourteenth avenue, East Twenty-seventh street and Vallecito avenue was the one unanimously recommended by the Board of Public Welfare after months of inspection and consideration of many places of property offered. The board finally recommended the site to the supervisors as the best location for a new county hospital.

Attorney Charles M. Shortridge addressed the board regarding the qualities of property at the end of Hopkins street belonging to J. M. Clark and others. He offered five acres for $22,500 and nine acres for $45,000. No action was taken upon the offer, which was included as the "one hundredth and one" on file, in the designation of Chairman Murphy.

The was no discussion over the attitude of the supervisors toward the California College site, the opinion being that all sections of the county were agreeable to that location.

MEMBERS OF COMMISSION. The Public Welfare Commission consisted of Acting Mayor, Rev. E. L. Parsons, Mrs. Duncan McDuffie, Mr. Amette Powers, Mrs. J. G. Harrison, C. B. Overacker and Elmer Dwyer. Their third and final report on the matter of a hospital site follows:

The Board of Supervisors, Alameda County, Oakland, Cal. Gentlemen: In accordance with instructions given the Board of Public Welfare in December, 1915, the Board of Public Welfare begs now to submit the following unanimous recommendation in connection with a site for a general hospital.

This recommendation is—that the Board of Supervisors acquire the site of 11 acres on the west side of Fourteenth avenue and the north of East Twenty-seventh street, in the city of Oakland, as submitted by the California College Association. This property has been offered for $55,000, but the Board of Public Welfare has been assured that it can be procured for a less sum than that named.

After a careful comparison of all the sites submitted, the Board of Public Welfare has come to the conclusion that the recommended site most nearly fulfills the requirements of a general hospital for the following reasons:

1. It is within one block of the center of population of Alameda County.

2. It is within a circle of two miles radius, having its center at the center of population of the metropolitan district.

3. It is of a size to answer present and future requirements.

4. It is easily accessible and reached by two car lines.

5. It has a very desirable elevation and natural drainage.

6. The climatic conditions are ideal.

7. It is notable for absence of noise, smoke, dust and other obnoxious conditions.

8. It is unlikely that the immediate vicinity of this site will ever be encroached upon by factories, business or other like improvements.

9. The neighborhood is one in which a fine public institution may properly be established.

10. The property is so situated and of such a size that each of the several buildings can be so oriented as to develop ideal hospital conditions.

11. A superficial examination of the physical conditions indicates adequate foundations for buildings and that top soil is capable of park-like development as indicated by existing vegetation.

12. The water supply and the sewer system in the vicinity are adequate.

13. The gross price is considered well within the means of a large, important and prosperous community as Alameda County.

14. After careful comparison of advantages offered by all other sites submitted, the Board of Public Welfare considers the unit price of the recommended site (always taking into account the reduction above referred to) the most reasonable of any submitted.

In explanation of references made to centers of population, we call attention to letters directed to the Board of Supervisors March 11 and April 18, 1916, and the submitted map in which are indicated the position of the several reputed centers of population.

In view of the foregoing and of the resolution passed by the Board of Supervisors on June 21, 1915, "the sense of which resolution was that a suitable piece of land within a reasonable distance of the center of town be acquired, and of the crying need of a new and more centrally located county hospital, the Board of Public Welfare urges that the Board of Supervisors take immediate steps toward acquiring the site recommended.

Yours very respectfully,
(Signed) O. H. MARKWART,
Chairman.

June 5, 1916.

Greek Provisional Heads Recognized

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The entente allies have formally recognized the provisional government of Greece in the island of Crete set up by former Premier Venizelos.

The entente consuls at Cana, the capital of Crete, have been instructed to act in union in this matter. An official statement issued here today says it is only in Crete that the question of official recognition has yet risen.

Official circles in London have received no word in regard to recognition of the new cabinet at Athens by the entente.

HUGHES SAYS FARMERS ARE SUFFERERS

Candidate Tells Enthusiastic Nebraska Audience Adamson 8-Hour Law Puts Unfair Burden on Agricultural Sections

G. O. P. Standard Bearer Deals Body Blow to Democratic Pretensions and Says There Will Be No "Invisible Government"

By PERRY ARNOLD.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 16.—Republican Nominee Hughes today answered President Wilson's strictures as to the "invisible government" and the Republican party and then struck methodically at the Democratic administration's failure to consider pleas of farmers for consideration prior to enactment of the Adamson eight-hour law.

He spoke to an audience of more than 2000 people assembled in the open air on one of the streets near the station.

"Let me say here," he remarked with vigorous emphasis, "that those who are declaiming to the American public about 'invisible government' had better remember that when I was in executive responsibility, New York there was no 'invisible government' in that state."

REFERENCE TO FARMERS. Hughes' reference to ignoring of the right of farmers to be heard in an increase of wages to railroad employees—which was bound to be reflected in increased freight rates—was particularly well received by his audience of farmers.

"I wish to say with regard to rates," he declared, "that it seems to me the farmers of the country were very little considered the other day when, on the demand of the administration, the wages of a certain group of railroad employees were increased by hasty legislation on the demand of force. I do not believe in that kind of legislation. It is very thoughtless, to say the least, of the interests of the great agricultural communities such as this; because, if you increase the expenses of carriers by a great increase in wages, somebody has got to pay the bill. When you say that railroads will pay the increased expenses you have only begun. Railroads get money from the shippers and the farmers will know very quickly what they pay the increased expenses, which are paid if increased expenses are thus put upon railroad companies.

WERE NOT REPRESENTED. "Now, there was a great protest in time on behalf of farmers. They were not represented in this discussion, if you can call it such. They were not represented in this surrender; they were on the outside with other members of the public. I have here a copy of the telegram which was sent to the president by H. N. Pope, president of the State Farmers' Union of Texas, which put very briefly the demand of the farmers with respect to this matter."

The telegram, which Hughes read in full, asked that "there be no concessions or commitments that in any manner cause an increase in freight rates on products produced or consumed on the farm," and urged that a committee of farmers be permitted to gather data.

Lloyd's Action May Mean U-53 Is Sunk

LONDON, Oct. 16.—That the German submarine U-53 either has been sunk, captured or has returned to German port, are the guesses made in shipping circles here to account for Lloyd's sudden reduction of trans-Atlantic insurance from 40 to 20 shillings. It is assumed here that Lloyd's action was based on inside information of some sort.

Wilsonites to Fete Leading Progressives

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Extensive arrangements are being made by Wilson adherents for the visit and entertainment of Bainbridge Colby, the noted New York Progressive, who is nominated Roosevelt. He is due to arrive here tomorrow afternoon.

EVERYBODY NEEDS PURE, RICH BLOOD

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it, work is sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, a deranged state of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia.

Pure blood is required by every organ of the body for the proper performance of its functions.

"Blood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so successful in the treatment of so many diseases and ailments. It acts directly on the blood, ridding it of scrofulous and other humors. It is a peculiar combination of blood-purifying, nerve-toning, strength-giving substances. Get to today—Advertisement.

War Keeps Down New York Vote Registration Prophecy Not Fulfilled

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Although the registration of 733,710 voters in New York City exceeded last year's record by 70,893, the predictions of political leaders were not fulfilled. The registration figures now available show a gain of 33,424 over the registration for the last presidential election in 1912.

Politicians have prophesied that a total of 750,000 to 800,000 would be attained. One reason given for the failure to reach the figures is the return to Europe of many men of foreign birth.

Prohibitionist Lauds Men Who Get Drunk

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 16.—A tribute to the class of men who become drunkards was paid by Ira Landrith, Prohibition candidate for vice-president, in an address to young women at Ward-Belmont College in Nashville today.

"Don't judge the drunkard too harshly," Landrith said. "For one thing he never is a tightwad. He who worships the eagle on the dollar seldom worships the bottle on the shelf. The mean, miserly, narrow-souled fellow does not get drunk. The man who becomes a drunkard likes men; the miser has no social instinct. Prohibition of the liquor traffic will save to us a generation of men who would give blessing to the time."

None of the other speakers aboard the Prohibition special train spoke during the day. J. Frank Hanly, the presidential nominee, rested his voice for the strenuous Indiana invasion tomorrow.

OFFICIALS WANT SMALLER PAPERS

Federal Trade Commission Requests Publishers to Conserve Print.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Reduction in the size of Sunday newspapers as a means of conserving the news print paper supply of the country and possibly preventing the suspension of smaller newspapers was recommended in a letter sent today by the Federal Trade Commission to all the publishers of large Sunday newspapers in the United States. The letter follows:

In connection with its investigation of news print prices the commission has given serious consideration to possible means of preventing the suspension of papers because of the increasing and advancing prices. The present situation can only be alleviated by increasing the output or reducing consumption.

The commission has conferred with a number of prominent publishers regarding ways to reduce consumption in addition to the cutting off of news, eliminating waste, etc., which many newspapers are reported to have already done. These publishers are of the opinion that there is still an opportunity to effect a considerable reduction in consumption by cutting down the size of Sunday newspapers. They feel that the elimination of certain features would meet with public approval and would not decrease the revenues of the publishers.

The paper saved by cutting down the size of one large Sunday edition several pages will be sufficient to keep a number of smaller papers supplied for a considerable time. Unless present supplies of paper can be increased, such unselfish action on the part of the large city papers, appears to be the only means that will save many of the smaller publishers from going out of business.

The commission asks you co-operation in this matter and would like to know your attitude toward this proposition. The commission would also appreciate any suggestions that occur to you regarding practical ways of making this proposal effective.

Electric Sign To Hold Debate

Noted Writers to Argue Over Presidency

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 16.—George Ade and Meredith Nicholson, authors, beginning tonight are to hold a political debate on an electric sign, situated in the center of the city. The incoherent debate begins with the display of a forty-five word argument favoring Woodrow Wilson's reelection which was written by Nicholson. After running seven nights, Nicholson's words will be followed for a like period by a statement in support of woman suffrage, written by his wife. The last week before the election Ade's argument for Charles E. Hughes' election will be flashed on the sign, in answer to Nicholson.

President to Talk From Rear Coach

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—President Wilson has decided to make a 22 rear-end "appearance" with perhaps short "howdy-dos" to voters at different stops on his way to and from Chicago, where he is to address a non-partisan meeting at the Press Club next Thursday. Twelve of the stops are to be made upstate in New York, three in Indiana and seven in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Officials to Welcome Women's Special

Oakland's city officials will welcome the women's Hughes campaign special when it arrives in the city tomorrow morning. The matter was discussed at the meeting of the city council today, and the commissioners announced that they would be at the station when the special train and its crowd of fair Hughes speakers rolls in.

Commissioners Harry S. Anderson, William J. Baccus, W. H. Edwards and E. F. Jackson will be in the party. Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen will also be among those present, as well as a number of other city department heads. Edwards, as acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Davis, will welcome the delegation and grant the women the freedom of the city.

One Killed When Auto Hits Motor Truck

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—One killed, one probably fatally hurt and fourteen injured in the toll of Sunday's automobile accidents in Southern California. Anthony Burke, 24 years old, auto-elevator operator at the Victoria hotel, was fatally injured in a collision between his car and a truck wagon at West Adams and Grashaw boulevard and died on his way to the receiving hospital. H. H. Hishyama, driver of a vegetable wagon, was slightly hurt and J. H. Phillips and J. R. Tennington of the Victoria hotel, fellow passengers of Burke, were also slightly hurt.

The first fall concert of the Oakland Orpheus Club will be held in the Oakland Municipal Auditorium on the evening of October 24. Edwin Dunbar Crandall will direct the concert.

SUNDAY'S TOLL OF ACCIDENTS LARGE

One Death and Numerous Injuries to Be Charged Against Automobiles.

With a hat as a clew to one of the wanted men, and nothing but a scant description of the other, the police are today seeking two automobilists, one of whom ran down W. J. Campbell, 1149 Madison street, and the other J. N. Patterson, a machinist. In both cases the drivers drove away without offering assistance, a felony under the state law.

Campbell was injured in a collision when a machine he was driving was demolished by another in a rear-end impact. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital and is in a serious condition. Patterson, a machinist, living at 2142 Orange avenue, was run down while crossing the street near his home. In the excitement the automobilist, who drove hastily away, leaving his victim injured on the street, dropped his hat.

Today sees the usual number of auto accident victims about the bay recovering from various injuries. Ben Shapiro, local real estate man; F. A. Cascon, 423 Ninth avenue, and John E. Baugher, Oakland realty dealer, are recovering from severe cuts and bruises as the result of an accident in which their machine was struck by an Oakland-Antioch train. The accident happened on the San Ramon road, near the Danville crossing.

KILLED BY BLOWOUT.

Christopher Leith, 399 Steiner street, is dead in San Francisco as the result of a peculiar accident in which the blowing out of the tire of a jitney bus caused the machine to turn over, crushing Leith beneath it. John Brisco, the driver, escaped.

Policeman David M. Stephens of the San Francisco force, is suffering from injuries that may prove fatal, as the result of being struck by a heavy auto truck, driven by Joseph Groom, an employee of the J. P. Holland Company. It is declared that the driver failed to give the traffic signal while turning the corner. He is being held for investigation. The accident occurred at Geary and Stockton streets.

PARTY IN ACCIDENT.

Antone Seville, 463 Oak street, was hurled to the pavement by an automobile, driven by W. J. Johnson, 1116 Post street, yesterday, on Van Ness avenue and Bush street. He is suffering from painful bruises. Sam Rehliyer, an elevator operator, 131 Ney street, San Francisco, was seriously injured when the automobile he was riding in on the State highway near San Jose was struck by a car owned by L. B. Deke of the Thomas Mercantile Company of Gilroy. Others in the machine, suffering from bruises and minor injuries, were Ted Wetmore, Henry Davis and August Rehliemer, all of San Francisco.

CHURCH SCHISMS

Failure of High Purpose, Declares Speaker, in Face of Great Problem.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 16.—Serious aspects of world affairs demand increased efforts toward Christian unity, according to Pastor John R. Mott of Baltimore, who addressed the Churches of Christ convention here last night. He said in part:

"We have been so long accustomed to looking upon the church as a normal condition, whereas it is both a divine and a human institution. The church can never serve the purpose for which it was established, for its divine mission is to bring men and women into the kingdom of God. Christianity will conquer the world, whether it will be able to stand against the forces of darkness or not."

"The Church never faced a more serious period in its history than now. I had better tell you, John R. Mott, a few days ago in which he said if there was ever a time for the church to get upon her knees and stay there in prayer, it is now, for there is no other method of meeting the issue except by a renewed consecration."

"There is not a nation on the globe at this time, where the Christian faith is not being tested. The worst war in the history of the world is raging on the continent where before this war neither Roman Catholics nor Protestants were increasing in Europe, and the growth of Christianity in America has been nothing to be compared to its possibilities. The principal force on one side and worldliness on the other in the midst of a divided household are undermining the very foundation of our faith, so that if our religion is based only upon certain Scriptural interpretation, it will be a religion of the past, and not of the future. When asked why this condition there is but one answer and that is, it is the product of a divided church."

"There is no time for boasting; there is no time for arrogance. As disciples of Christ, we are called to practice a long suffering and patience and brotherliness with the whole Christian world. We will win men to the principles that underlie all union, for a theological union is the chief of all union. Theological union will produce a division, a union by compromise is only temporary."

"There is a new building the spirit of Jesus Christ, who revealed the dignity of repentance, the power of love, the character of holiness, and the winsomeness of long suffering. These are the fundamental things in religion."

Famed Engineer Bogue Is Dead

News of the death of Virgil G. Bogue, nationally known civil engineer, has reached the bay region. Bogue died aboard the Ward liner, Esperanza, while en route from Mexico to New York, his home.

He is survived by a widow and a daughter, Mrs. Carlo Lucien Baron, better known as Miss Virginia Bogue, queen of San Francisco's first Fortuna fete, native of New York state, he was 70 years old, and at the time of his death was chief consulting engineer of the Union Pacific. He was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, fellow in the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and a member of various New York clubs.

He headed many great engineering feats, building the mountain sections of the Northern Pacific Railway, served as consulting engineer of New Zealand, and of the public works department of New York city and built the Western Pacific Railway's Sierra Nevada section, another great piece of engineering work. From 1905 to 1909 he was vice-president and chief engineer of the Western Pacific.

Mrs. Baron, his daughter, was married to Baron in New York, December 15, 1909. Baron is the son of a widely known Italian family, and while in San Francisco worked as conductor and inspector for the United Railroads. Her marriage to the heir created a stir in local society.

Fish Commission's Motor Boat in Trouble

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—A clash between the State of California and Uncle Sam on the subject of the regulations involving the operation of motor boats is likely as the result of a complaint lodged with Collector of the Port John D. Davis today against the State Fish and Game commission. Bontswain August Anderson, of the coast guard, reported the dereliction of the Baracuda, a motor boat of the commission, and the matter will undoubtedly be reported to Washington.

The rules and regulations of navigation require that motor boats be equipped with whistle and two copies of the law governing them. When Anderson made his descent on the Baracuda he found that the swift motor boat of the Fish and Game commission lacked the two copies of the rules and had no whistle.

There was no arrest made, but the omission was immediately reported.

LOST TO THIEVES.

The following thefts were reported to the police today: Ole Ellison, 722 Washington street, watch stolen, value $25; Julia T. Davis, Third street, jewelry stolen; C. D. Hensen, 1027 Henry street, suitcase and clothes stolen; Michael Melnings, 232 Whitmore street, pocket picked at First street and Broadway and $46.75 taken.

INDIGESTION AND CONSTIPATION.

U.S. Casement Plea Not Tardy Charges Denied by Tumulty

LONG BRANCH, N. Y., Oct. 16.—A letter from Secretary Tumulty to Michael Francis Doyle, attorney for Sir Roger Casement, containing a denial that the American government was negligent in efforts to save Sir Roger from being executed after his conviction for treason in England was made public today.

Mr. Tumulty replied to a letter from Mr. Doyle, saying Mrs. Newman, Sir Roger's sister, had received information from London that her brother's life might have been spared had the resolution urging clemency adopted by the United States Senate been forwarded to the British foreign office more promptly.

The letter reads:

It can be said that the State Department discussed the Sir Roger Casement matter with the British ambassador on several occasions, informally, but in great detail, before the passage of the Senate resolution, that the Senate resolution was prepared on Saturday and that the ambassador at once conveyed the information to the British government.

On Wednesday, the day before the day of execution, when the ambassador and I were again discussing the subject he showed me a cable from his government stating that his government had considered the case.

ment case and the resolution of the Senate and had come to the conclusion that in view of all the circumstances it could not grant clemency. Particular stress was laid as I recall, by the British government, on the fact that Irish prisoners in Germany who refused to assist Casement had been punished. The statements made in letters to Mrs. Newman, that had the resolution been presented in time her brother's life would have been spared, were utterly and entirely without foundation. You can state authoritatively that the ambassador read me the actual message from his government stating the resolution had been considered and that the conclusion had been reached that clemency could not be granted.

NEIGHBORS WILL DANCE.

Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and San Francisco camps of the Royal Neighbors and the Woodmen of the World will send guests. A whist tournament will also be held during the progress of the ball.

DIVERS FAIL TO HALT MUNITIONS

Shipments to Continue Despite Activities of Submarine.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Shipment of munitions to warring Europe will continue unabated, unless worse submarine occurs off the American gateway than has occurred to date, insuring men said today. While they did not discount the possibility of new raids the safety of the giant French liner Lafayette, the Scandinavian-American liner Hellig Olav and the American liner St. Paul lent strength to the thought that the raiders may now be wreaking havoc.

Weather bureau officials said today that the possibility of autumn storms may have driven the U boat or boats to shelter. From new on marked weather changes and possibly equally and even dangerous weather are likely to occur, said the bureau, though the worst storms generally do not hit the upper Atlantic until January.

From one of the leading British lines comes the statement today that the submarine raids have had "not the slightest effect" upon the munitions traffic, aside from temporary delays last week by holding boats in port.

We class these two cars together because they are substantially at the same price when the accessories, such as electric starter, demountable rims, speedometer, etc., are added to the price of a Ford or deducted from the price of a Maxwell, yet the Maxwell is a larger type of car, more artistic in appearance and claims other points of superiority.

List price of Ford car.....

Sensible people will be surprised, we think, to consider these figures and see that the Maxwell costs less than a Ford without considering the extra room, beauty and full spring equipment as compared to the two cross springs on a Ford.

The questions asked in the automobile and financial world a few years ago, as to the future of Maxwell have been answered with emphasis and are being answered, daily and monthly, with record output and increasing net returns by the organization which President Flanders has built up.

Maxwell has come back and, in its class, is in the race for leadership this year.

MAXWELL $595

A Maxwell "stock" car (traveled 22,000 miles without a motor stop—10,000 miles more than former record!) Average daily run—500.6 miles. Greatest average miles per gallon of gasoline; 23.0. Smallest average miles per gallon of gasoline; 21.9. Average tire life, 9,371 miles. Average oil consumption bet. 900 and 1000 miles per gallon.

The Charm of the Electric Player Piano

The electrically operated Player-Piano has been perfected. It is now an instrument of refinement for the parlor and the music-room. The blatant mechanical effects of a year ago have been succeeded by the genius of Chopin, Beethoven, Schubert and the masterworks rendered by such artists as Harold Bauer, Josef Hoffman, Gabrilowitsch and a hundred others.

We offer at our stores in the latest Artistic Players:

The Apollo, the Artrio-Angelus, the Euphonia

Each is an instrument playable by hand as an ordinary piano, by pedals, as the usual player-piano, as the player electrically blown and controlled manually, or as an authentic reproducing player-piano which embodies in its renditions all of the artistry of the greatest masters.

The electrically operated player is the piano of the present and the future. It is logical, more musical, more perfect and more desirable in every way. In no store save ours can be found such a beautiful assortment from which to select. Your old piano in part payment.

FAILURES OF WILSON STIR BENSON'S IRE

Socialist Candidate for Presidency Tells Big Audience of Many Shortcomings of the Democratic Administration

Attacks Record of Executive As Governor of New Jersey and Head of Princeton and Impaches His Ulterior Motives

What Woodrow Wilson has not done for labor was the burden of a stirring address made last night by Allan L. Benson, Socialist candidate for the Presidency. Benson attracted a large following to the municipal opera house, where he was, during the course of his scathing arraignment of the President, repeatedly interrupted with applause from his auditors. Benson did not confine his observations to the "political straddles" of democracy, but declared that the Republican party was far afield of what the Socialist asks of a national administration.

QUOTES WILSON.
Armed with extracts from addresses and published works of President Wilson, Benson made telling attacks on his so-called labor program. Quoting from Wilson's remarks to a class of Princeton graduates in 1909, Benson offered to impeach the motives of Wilson in his entire attitude toward the union vote of America. At that time Wilson was quoted as saying that trade unionism had curbed democracy in industry; that it had established the standard of offering a minimum of service for a maximum of compensation, and that it has so harnessed the skilled trades that the best effort was required so that the peasant might demand a wage. His language was a warning, said Benson, "to the sons of the rich and pampered, the heirs of the masters of today, who were about to go into the world and continue to hold labor under the yoke."

The draft clause in the Hay-Chamberlain bill, giving the Democratic President power to draft men into the army, was bitterly arraigned, as was also the so-called eight-hour law, which excited the derision and contempt of the speaker, who branded the measure as a bit of Democratic trickery and solely a device for deceiving the labor vote of the United States.

PROMISES BIG VOTE.
Much enthusiasm was inspired by Benson's promise to roll up a huge vote for the Socialist ticket. He acknowledged that the party could not capture the offices to which its candidates aspired, but he trusted that the vote would startle the Democratic and Republican parties. Benson's attack on Wilson was supported by a mass of data taken from the administration program at Washington and Wilson's conduct as governor of New Jersey and president of Princeton. Child labor, so-called emancipation of labor and the failure of foreign policies were all the subject of the speaker's eloquence.

Ten Physicians Fail to Diagnose Case

For three months Mrs. Mamie Sabine, 1123 Twelfth avenue, has had a dislocated neck and shoulder and a broken rib without knowing it. She was advised of the full extent of her injuries suffered July 4, in a San Francisco apartment house fire when Dr. F. R. Mugler made a thorough examination. Ten physicians, to whom Mrs. Sabine has applied for treatment in the last three months, were unable to locate the causes of pains in her shoulder and neck.

Mrs. Sabine was injured in the Grand apartment fire on Golden Gate avenue when two women were killed and a dozen other persons injured. She was visiting in the house when the fire broke out and jumped from the third story into a fireman's net, which broke when she was caught. Her right arm was painfully crushed. Her daughters, Misses Gladys and Georgia, were also badly hurt in the fire.

B'nai B'rith Holds Celebration in Park

Over three hundred members of the local lodge of B'nai B'rith journeyed to Golden Gate Park stadium in San Francisco yesterday for participation in a celebration of the order known as B'nai B'rith Day. The day is observed by every lodge in the order throughout the United States, and Jewish residents meet for purposes of entertainment and charity.

Along with members of the San Francisco and Oakland lodges were children of the bay district, who were treated to all sorts of entertainment and unusual things to eat. Mrs. M. Scholier, president of the local lodge, B'nai B'rith, spoke for his Oakland colleagues, giving a few well-chosen words on the work of the order.

Children from the Pacific Hebrew Orphan Asylum and other Jewish institutions were greeted with games, races, vaudeville and motion pictures. Three thousand people attended.

Club Will Listen to Prohibition Debate

The Rockridge Improvement Club will hold an open meeting this evening at their hall, Coliseum avenue, near Lawton. The feature of the evening will be discussion of the proposed prohibition amendments 1 and 2. The argument for the amendments will be presented by Attorney F. S. Page, president of the Alameda County Dry Federation, and the argument in opposition will be presented by A. J. Deason, secretary manager of the Property Owners' Protective Association.

The meeting will take place at 8 o'clock and the public is invited.

AGED MAN DIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Edmund Phillips, 93 years old, who became lost in the hills and forests back of Twin Peaks when he wandered away from home last Friday, is dead at the Relief Home as the result of exposure. The aged man was found unconscious under a tree beside the Twin Peaks sky line boulevard by a passing motorist, who took him to the Relief Home. The old man could recall nothing of his wanderings.

Farmer Kills Girl for Refusing to Work

ALEXANDRIA, La., Oct. 16.—Charles M. Bonnette, a farmer of Melder, La., shot and killed his nineteen-year-old daughter yesterday when she refused to work in the fields, according to the sheriff's office today. Bonnette committed suicide.

DUCK HUNTERS DROWNED

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 16.—William Reynolds, 27, and his brother, Julius, 23, were drowned yesterday in Bowles Lake, near Littleton, while duck hunting. The young men were farmers living near Littleton. The bodies were recovered.

Trains Crash; Ten Men Killed in Wreck

ELWOOD, Neb., Oct. 16.—Ten men were killed and eleven others seriously injured when a train on the Burlington railroad crashed into the freight caboose in which they were riding, twelve miles east of here.

Five other men, standing on the rear platform of the caboose, saw the approaching train soon enough to jump to safety. One other man in the caboose cupola was thrown clear of the wreck and escaped injury.

Lack of lights and warning signals is given by survivors of the collision as the cause of the accident yesterday.

Humane Society to Discuss Cruelty

CINCINNATI, Oct. 16.—Special emphasis will be placed on humane education to commemorate the work of Henry Bergh, founder of America's first anti-cruelty society, by members of the American Humane Association, here today to attend their fortieth annual meeting, which continues through Thursday. Today's work will be devoted to child protection and the remainder of the sessions to animal protection.

The association, with headquarters at Albany, N. Y., is a federation of 682 anti-cruelty societies. Last year the federated societies investigated and cared for cases of cruelty involving 212,215 children and 2,394,721 animals.

WOMAN WEAK, RUN DOWN

Finds Health in a Simple Tonic

People in Oakland will begin to believe us when we say that our delicious Vinol is a wonderful tonic and strength creator.

Here is another case where it has proved its wonderful power to overcome weak, run-down, nervous, anemic conditions.

"I was run-down, nervous, and could not do my work without being entirely exhausted, and would often faint without any apparent cause. The doctor said I was anemic but failed to help me. My husband brought home a bottle of Vinol and I began to improve after taking one bottle, and after taking four bottles it has built me up so I can do all my household work without help. I recommended Vinol to a neighbor, who says her doctor approves of it and said, 'Vinol is a wonderfully good tonic.' Mrs. Bessie Hering, West Philadelphia, Pa.

We recommend Vinol to our customers as the greatest strength creator we know—due to the beef and cod liver, peptones, iron (and manganese) potentes and glycerophosphates, all contained in Vinol.

FIGHT ONLY THING PRISONER RECALLS

Held Pending Coppi Murder Investigation, Lawrence Denies Guilt.

Gaston Lawrence, arrested in connection with the murder of Stephano Coppi, Emeryville lodging house-keeper, was brought from San Francisco, where he was taken into custody last night, and placed in the county jail. No charge, has been placed against him yet. He was questioned closely today by deputies in the sheriff's office. The Emeryville police will examine him further.

Lawrence, who was arrested in San Francisco, fits the description of the Oakland police of the man seen leaving the saloon where Coppi was killed shortly after his death. Lawrence says he "remembers getting into a fight in Emeryville a few weeks ago," but declares that he saw no one killed.

Coppi was murdered during a poker game, it is believed, while defending his money in a quarrel over the cards. The body was found on the morning of August 21. There were two bullet wounds and many evidences of a desperate struggle. Several men hastily fled from the place after the fight.

Lawrence was arrested last night on Pacific street in San Francisco when two unidentified men informed a policeman that he was the murderer. Taken to the police station, he admitted that he had been in a fight in Emeryville, but declared that was all there was to the affair while he was there. He was armed with a loaded revolver and a razor, and bore evidence of recent trouble in a powder-burned face.

Coppi had tried to defend himself with a rifle when killed, it is declared by the police.

This morning Lawrence said nothing save to reiterate the statement he made to the San Francisco police that he was in a fight, but remembered no more about it.

Woman Is Sentenced on Murder Charge

NASHVILLE, Ark., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Annie Smith was found guilty of second degree murder by a jury in Circuit Court here and was sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary, the same sentence imposed yesterday on her husband, John Smith, in the same case. The woman killed O. S. Ledford here last September while her husband looked on and urged her to "shoot again," according to testimony in the case. She admitted she had been intimate with Ledford.

WOMAN TRIES SUICIDE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Grief over the death of her husband two months ago at the Central Emergency hospital caused Mrs. Frances Betsche, of 4070 Nineteenth street, to turn on the gas in an effort at suicide early this morning. She was discovered by her daughter and hurried to the Mission hospital, but there is little hope for her recovery.

SHOOTING VICTIM DIES.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Benjamin Card, aged 28, glassblower, of 830 Leavenworth street, is dead of a bullet wound inflicted by James F. Maloney, another glassblower, of 1823 Howard street.

AMERICAN AVIATOR DIES.
BEVERLY, Mass., Oct. 16.—Norman Prince, an American aviator who was wounded recently in France is dead of his injuries, according to a cable message received by his mother.

DRAGON DAY AT IDORA PARK FIESTA.
The International Summer Fiesta which is to be held at Idora Park during the next two weeks will have more real fun and joy crammed into fourteen days than any festival ever held in Oakland. The pleasant days of the Exposition will be recalled by the special "buyers" of the various foreign nations who have large colonies around the bay. Today is the first day of the festival. The dragon jester will be on hand to make the former emblem of China go through its antics with due oriental solemnity.

MEDICAL SOCIETY TO MEET.
The Alameda County Medical Society will meet tomorrow night at the Hotel Oakland, when a number of matters of importance will be discussed and several technical papers read.

WIDOW LOSES LIFE IN PROBABLE DEATH PACT.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Following his participation in what the police believe to have been a suicide pact, in which he and Mrs. Rose Neal, a widow, agreed to end their lives by gas, the woman's body was restored to consciousness at the Mission emergency hospital, will, if he recovers from the effects of the attempt, face investigation by the police.

The two were found in a room at the Hotel Wagner, Sixteenth and Folsom street, by George Wagner, manager of the place. Mrs. Neal, a widow, was found dead. Gas was flowing from a jet, the burner of which had been removed. The two had registered at the place as "Mr. and Mrs. Desley," but marks on her clothing and papers in her possession, gave the name "Mrs. Rose Neal, Veteran's Home, Yountville."

Mrs. Neal was the cousin of Frank McMahon, a special policeman doing watchman duty on Brewster street, and according to him, had been employed at the Veteran's Home. Her husband died several years ago.

BLOODSTAINS ON CAR ARE CLEW TO MYSTERY.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—A six-cylinder automobile that had been stripped of its tires and shot down a steep embankment 200 feet into one of the Spring Valley lakes was found, with the right hand door open, and the fenders were covered with blood.

The automobile belonged to Lela Gates Kellar, Crockett apartments, 51 Market street, was stolen from in front of the apartment house between 7:30 and 8 o'clock Saturday night.

It was found yesterday just off the Sawyer Camp road, near the old country estate of Prince Poniatowski.

Grand Jury Working on Auto Tragedy.
SAN JOSE, Oct. 16.—The grand jury met in secret session today to gather evidence from witnesses on the charge of perjury preferred by the district attorney against E. Dennis, a fish dealer of San Francisco, for some of his testimony offered in the trial of Anna Dennis, charged with the murder of her husband, John Dennis, who was killed by the automobile after having run down the body of the victim.

But the district attorney insists that it is proven that the woman, which Dennis was wearing was equipped with the blood and brains of Zepeda.

The witness, who was Saturday was Special Detective Louis De Carl and Chief of Police of Palo Alto Chester E. Thomas is conducting the investigation. The introduction of further testimony will take place on Tuesday morning.

ORPHEUM WINTER SEASON OPENED

Big Dancing Feature and Some Lively Comedy in Week's Program.

The Orpheum opened its winter season of vaudeville yesterday—and long may it wave! It was a uniformly excellent bill—no one number sinking into the depths and no one number getting into the clouds on the shoulders of its fellows.

In other words, it was a bill built right from the ground upward.

As elaborate a dancing production as we have seen here in some time is that sponsored by Miss Evan-Burrows. Fourteen, who takes the leading dances in three of her five numbers. The background of futuristic, high-colored scene-sets, aided by six feminine dance assistants of picturesque help, make it a "big act."

Miss Fontaine, herself, is not only a model dancer, but a fine singer. The blue background in the Hawaiian set won for her approval. It was Miss Fontaine's dance partner in every sense of the word. The Dance Egyptian by four of the company and Savoyers. The Indian dance seems to meet with greatest acclamation.

Tamara Kalyana, the man who writes all her R. B. Vincent and company, most of his old routine and a lot of new act which should make him a superabundant of admirers this evening of the Orpheum circle. Kalyana, with the aid of a stage-length blackboard, yellow crayon, Irish wit, and a mathematical mind, turns his fifteen minutes to advantage.

Water Brower, billed as the Jolly Jester, is just that. His monologue is given with the aid of good judgment, with a touch of wit and the aid of well-timed facial expression. His selection at the close of his act, surprised the matinee audience, but at the same time won it completely. Brower will always find the welcome on Oakland's front door mat.

"The Rec'd" presents the Life Triangle, with variations. Miss Vincent is sturdy, and acts the wife, Claire Dawson, in just that manner. Why her facial expression just previous to weeping should cause laughter from the rest of us is a question. But it's so. Frank H. Gardner, the husband—mean, cross and egotistic—is just that. Which is praise enough.

Walter R. Fisher, the Other Man—carries his duties with vim. Struan Robertson, who isn't a regular vaudeville act, can be one any time he wishes. His concert air is not assumed. We know this after hearing his voice. His selections are not heavy and only two of them are Italian. Franch, who leans heavily on the Irish selections and carries away with him everyone's vote of approval. Vote yes on Struan Robertson.

Buck Pieler and Abbie Scofield give us a nice chatty act, with just enough juggling and conversation intermixed. After Scofield works just as hard as Pieler, only we aren't aware of it. Moving one's mouth at a twelve-cylinder gait for fifteen minutes or so is work. Miss Scofield is ingenious enough for any of us, while the husky man, who joshes his hands full of knives, and who, with a cane, can handle a cat, wheels, cannon balls and things like that.

Bessie and Zena Morin open the bill with duo and solo dancing of really high order. Both sisters are well equipped to carry a good repertoire. The old buck and wing dance of one sister and the other, were of equal value from an applause point of view.

The Tinettes Sisters, with teeth of steel, plenty beauty and a number of acts, held everybody in their seats while swinging hither and thither—all over the stage. It is well worth while staying for this act.

GROWS WHISKERS TO LOOK PART IN FILM.
That familiar anorak of the theatre, "Art for Art's sake" has once again been made to render themselves subjects for discussion by employing extreme means.

At Culver City recently Hickman was working in "The Jungle Child," the Tri-angel play in which he is a co-star with Dorothy Dalton. He was cast to play the part of an explorer in the Southern American jungles.

Fearful that crepe hair would look "faky," Hickman shaved for and was granted a week off. Throughout the week he went unshaven, with the result that when he returned for duty before the camera he looked his part without make-up.

The "Jungle Child" will be shown today and tomorrow at the Franklin theatre. A Keystone comedy, Hears News and other features complete the bill.

WIDOW LOSES LIFE IN PROBABLE DEATH PACT.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Following his participation in what the police believe to have been a suicide pact, in which he and Mrs. Rose Neal, a widow, agreed to end their lives by gas, the woman's body was restored to consciousness at the Mission emergency hospital, will, if he recovers from the effects of the attempt, face investigation by the police.

The two were found in a room at the Hotel Wagner, Sixteenth and Folsom street, by George Wagner, manager of the place. Mrs. Neal, a widow, was found dead. Gas was flowing from a jet, the burner of which had been removed. The two had registered at the place as "Mr. and Mrs. Desley," but marks on her clothing and papers in her possession, gave the name "Mrs. Rose Neal, Veteran's Home, Yountville."

Mrs. Neal was the cousin of Frank McMahon, a special policeman doing watchman duty on Brewster street, and according to him, had been employed at the Veteran's Home. Her husband died several years ago.

BLOODSTAINS ON CAR ARE CLEW TO MYSTERY.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—A six-cylinder automobile that had been stripped of its tires and shot down a steep embankment 200 feet into one of the Spring Valley lakes was found, with the right hand door open, and the fenders were covered with blood.

The automobile belonged to Lela Gates Kellar, Crockett apartments, 51 Market street, was stolen from in front of the apartment house between 7:30 and 8 o'clock Saturday night.

It was found yesterday just off the Sawyer Camp road, near the old country estate of Prince Poniatowski.

Grand Jury Working on Auto Tragedy.
SAN JOSE, Oct. 16.—The grand jury met in secret session today to gather evidence from witnesses on the charge of perjury preferred by the district attorney against E. Dennis, a fish dealer of San Francisco, for some of his testimony offered in the trial of Anna Dennis, charged with the murder of her husband, John Dennis, who was killed by the automobile after having run down the body of the victim.

But the district attorney insists that it is proven that the woman, which Dennis was wearing was equipped with the blood and brains of Zepeda.

The witness, who was Saturday was Special Detective Louis De Carl and Chief of Police of Palo Alto Chester E. Thomas is conducting the investigation. The introduction of further testimony will take place on Tuesday morning.

News of the Theaters

GIRL FROM RECTOR'S OPENS AT MACDONOUGH.

When "The Girl from Rector's" production appears at the Macdonough Theatre this evening for an engagement of one week only with matinees on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, there will be the most exceptional cast of principals and chorus seen in this city for some time, including the Gould who plays "The Girl," the Dancing Lockers, whirlwind dancers of merit, "The Criterion Quartet," the drawing rooms of a fashionable society, the New York City, Gladys Emma, the little girl with the big voice, Ray J. Collins, and Faustino, Queen of Ah-Har, who will submit to the people of this city, some of the world's native dances of her country. The chorus consists of the most beautiful dancing and singing girls that could be selected after eleven weeks of constant search for the most perfect in all the principal cities of the country.

FORGOTTEN ISLAND IS SETTING FOR FILM.
Marie Doro, who recently appeared in "Common Ground," is now playing in "The Lash," the story of which is about a forgotten little island, St. Deleste, and the drawing rooms of a fashionable society. The little island where the first scenes of the picture are laid, was settled in the centuries ago by some of the bravest voyagers from Britain. The story still exists here, while the rest of the world has long since advanced.

The inhabitants of a fashionable society, whose word is positive law and one of the customs is that any woman who is "perfect" across the shoulders with a whip.

Marie Doro is seen as the daughter of this "Perfect." How she plays the part of a society butterfly and eventually wins the approval of her husband in a manner which must be seen to be understood and enjoyed.

The bill is Mary Miles Minter, in "Youth's Endearing Charms."

KING APPEARS IN LESCHINSKI'S JUBILEE.
"Leschinski's Jubilee," featuring popular Will King, Oakland's favorite singer, who appeared yesterday at the Columbia, is a play with amusing situations that have never been seen in local musical comedies before. Charlie the writer of the play, having penned it two weeks ago.

King is the central figure in this laugh offering. He is a comedian of the first order, and his performance is a masterpiece of the Hebrew in Paris is a masterpiece of the Hebrew in Paris is a masterpiece of the Hebrew in Paris.

Joe Steffens, sister of Willie Ritchie, was seen in yesterday's cast. Miss Steffens, who has assumed her brother's boxing name of Ritchie, is a clever singer and dancer.

CAPACITY HOUSES GREET BROADWAY FILM.
Nude act, treated in the most delicate and unoffending way, and including poses that are regarded as an art in motion pictures. Its handling of a delicate trifle has won it the approval of the board of censors, and it has been shown. The picture will remain at the Broadway theater all week, running continuously every day from 10 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock at night.

PLENTY OF AMUSE AT THE HIPPODROME.
There is plenty to amuse and entertain on the Hippodrome's new show, offered for the first time yesterday afternoon and evening. The variety of the numbers, including George Clancy and his company in a delightful little twenty-minute playlet called "The Palace." The picture, "The Palace," a clever colored entertainer, have an up-to-the-minute minstrel offering.

Paul Galizzi, the well-known operatic baritone, pleased with his classical and popular numbers; and Billy Broad, black-face funster kept the audience laughing with his stories and parodies. Rose Lewellyn, with some well rendered contralto solos, completes a very pleasing vaudeville bill.

The first episode of "The Shielding Shadow" is the feature of the picture program offered in addition to the vaudeville.

There will be amateurs tomorrow night in addition to the regular show.

DRAGON DAY AT IDORA PARK FIESTA.
The International Summer Fiesta which is to be held at Idora Park during the next two weeks will have more real fun and joy crammed into fourteen days than any festival ever held in Oakland. The pleasant days of the Exposition will be recalled by the special "buyers" of the various foreign nations who have large colonies around the bay. Today is the first day of the festival. The dragon jester will be on hand to make the former emblem of China go through its antics with due oriental solemnity.

MEDICAL SOCIETY TO MEET.
The Alameda County Medical Society will meet tomorrow night at the Hotel Oakland, when a number of matters of importance will be discussed and several technical papers read.

FARGE AND FROLIC PLEASE AUDIENCE

Anites of Trio, Girl Studies and Wire Artist Are Big Features.

It is to laugh at Farge and Frolic. Mealy and Montrose who return with a new, quick and snappy, right-side-up comedy. For quite a while the antics of the three merely amuse us. We giggle, we chuckle, we smile, but we do not laugh. But when they start in to make us laugh, success is but a faint word. CHARACTERS DISAPPOINTED.

The make-up and costume of Mealy, the fellow with the Plimsoll chest and the crimson nose is enough to receive approval from the audience. But when the three start rehearsing their act—and quarreling about it—all hands come to the fore for applause.

"The Society Buds," another tabloid musical production, has a chorus of excellent men, two English comedians and many funny situations. There is no plot, few songs, some dancing and quite a bit of foolery. Altogether it rings the bell of public approval and success up to other acts of similar nature which have preceded the Farge and Frolic.

A heartily not carrying much enthusiasm and a wild desire to express merrily through the media of hand instruments, the Farge and Frolic, for a moment, after the rise of the curtain one isn't sure whether he is listening to music or just a more neutral work of art. While the ears become attuned, one is assured that it is music.

Joe Steffens, sister of Willie Ritchie, was seen in yesterday's cast. Miss Steffens, who has assumed her brother's boxing name of Ritchie, is a clever singer and dancer.

Uncle Wiggly Kicks Cuts up for

Carlo Bedtime Story

(By Howard R. Garla.)

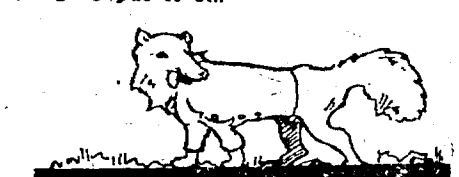

"Well, they're here!" exclaimed Nurse Jane Puzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper, as she came out on the hollow stump bungalow's front porch, where Uncle Wiggly Longears, the rabbit gentleman, was trying to cool off one hot September day. "They're here all right," said Nurse Jane again.

"Do you mean some of my little animal friends who want to have a game of tag?" asked the bunny uncle, as he curled his ears like a soft knot.

"Animal children? I should say not!" exclaimed the muskrat lady. "You know very well they are in school this time of day, studying how to gnaw nuts, get their skins off carrots, or pop corn."

"Then whom do you mean are here?" asked the rabbit gentleman, as he twinkled his pink nose. "Is it Grandpa Goosey Gander, who wants to play checkers?"

"No, it's the crickets, who are going to put a new roof on your hollow stump bungalow," said the muskrat lady. "They have brought with them a barrel of black tar, and when the lightning bugs have made this warm and soft, so it will easily spread over the roof, the crickets are going to put it on."

"Well, I am certainly glad they are here," said the rabbit gentleman. "I want them to stop up with the tar some holes in the roof that have been there for a long time when the snow and rain come down this winter no water will leak in. I'll go out and see them."

So the rabbit uncle went out to where the black, chirping crickets were waiting with their barrel of tar, and the fine, white, round gravel stones to put a new roof on the bungalow.

"Glad to see you!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly.

"Glad to see you," chirped the crickets. "This is one of the last things we will do before winter sets in. After we mend your roof we are going to take a long sleep."

"Now, if you will come up on the roof with us and show us how to do it, we will stop them," said the head cricket.

"Gladly will I do so," said Uncle Wiggly.

So up on the roof he went with the big cricket head-roof-rixxer, leaving the other crickets down on the ground, where they break open the barrel of tar to melt up to mend the roof.

"Uncle Wiggly, and the big cricket looked all over the top of the bungalow. They found many leaks that needed stopping up."

And all this while, down on the ground, the barrel of tar—

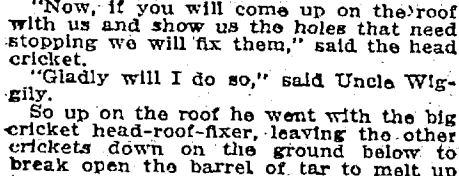

"But I had better tell that part the way it ended."

Out from school, for the moon hour, came Sammie and Susie Littell, the rabbits, Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, and Jackie and Peewee Boon Wod, the puppy dog boys. They saw the barrel of tar in front of Uncle Wiggly's bungalow, and they were quite a few when all of a sudden, Sammie, the rabbit, said:

"Let's do it!" cried Sammie.

"And then," added Susie, his sister. "Soon the rabbit, squirrel and puppy dog children were making marbles from the barrel of tar, and in a twinkling a few when, all of a sudden, Sammie, the rabbit, said:

"Oh, no. I am a better jumper than you," said Jackie.

"I think I am the best of all," spoke one of the squirrel boys. "I forgot where it was Johnnie or Billie."

"Well, we'll try and see who can jump best," said Susie. "Of course, being a girl, I won't jump with the boys. But I'll watch and see who does the best."

They all said this would be fair, and began jumping over the barrel of tar. Sammie Littell did pretty well, but Johnnie Bushytail said he thought he could do better.

They jumped and splashed around in the barrel of soft and sticky tar into which they had not meant to fall. Up on the roof Uncle Wiggly saw what had happened.

"Oh!" he cried. "Those poor little puppy dogs! What shall we do to get them out of the tar?"

"The only thing you can do," said the tar-roofing cricket, "is to spread them out on the tar, when the sun melts all the tar, we can lift them out and they will be as good as ever."

"Oh, dear! Boil! Boil!" cried Jackie.

"Oh, dear! Boil! Boil!" cried his brother, just to be different. "We don't want to stay up there all that while." "Well, we'll try and see who can jump best," said Susie. "Of course, being a girl, I won't jump with the boys. But I'll watch and see who does the best."

They all said this would be fair, and began jumping over the barrel of tar. Sammie Littell did pretty well, but Johnnie Bushytail said he thought he could do better.

Society

MISS MARGUERITE OGDEN, head of the committee of one hundred representative women of society, club and professional circles, who will meet the Woman's party train tomorrow in Oakland.

The daughter of Judge and Mrs. Frank Ogden, she decided while at the university to go in for a career, and is now a rising young attorney.

One of the smartest of the week's luncheons will be one that Mrs. Charles Eutaw will preside over most Thursday at "Roseland," the beautiful Butters place in Claremont. Mrs. Sidney Eutaw, the wife of Mayor Eutaw, who has been showered with social attentions across the bay since her arrival there, is one of the guests of honor, the other being another popular visitor, Mrs. Harry Webb of New York.

Mrs. Webb herself will be the hostess at a large tea at the Fairmont in San Francisco on Friday, entertaining an interesting gathering of a number of young women who are residents of London and much of her life has been spent in traveling. Her friends are in widely scattered parts of the world, and many of her guests will be other travelers visiting now in California. Mrs. Newton Booth Knox of London recently gave a luncheon for Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Eutaw.

Telegraphed announcements of the engagement of Miss Doris Ryer, daughter of Mrs. Fletcher Ryer, and Stanhope Nixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Nixon of New York, gave society one of its main topics of interest yesterday. The Ryers had been expected in San Francisco, and it is feared that now they may alter their plans and remain in the East.

Miss Ryer has been an acknowledged belle and beauty of Newport, and for the same number of winters a New York favorite of society. Until a few years back both she and her mother lived in California, their fortune consisting principally of California lands of prime section of the Elgin State. Her fiancé is the son of a people prominent in the East, his father being a power in the ship-building industry. He is a Yale man.

Herbert I. Priestley, curator of the University of California Historical Society, will speak before the History and Prehistory section of the Elgin State next Thursday, at 1440 Harrison street at 10:30 o'clock. Everyone interested has been invited by the club to attend, whether club members or not.

Special speakers are to be provided for each meeting of the section, making it one of the most interesting in the club.

The amateur skaters of society will contribute to the program next Wednesday night at the Techau Ice Palace, when the Memorial Day Nursery will be given a shimmering ice field for a background. Last week's program was so successful that no more reservations were to be had, all the reservations having been taken by a score of more, including some of the most prominent hostesses across the bay. Mrs. Charles Clark will entertain, so will Mrs. William E. Moore, Mrs. George W. Miller and many more.

Festivities begin at 6:30 o'clock with a concert and dinner dance, concluding at the ice palace with skating, dancing numbers on the ice as well as on the skates. Not to mention the meeting of the Polo Hockey Skating Club's team with the amateur skaters, it has been arranged to park the motors in Jones street.

On Thursday evening, in the presence of 100 guests Miss Marguerite Lincoln Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson of Berkeley, and Franklin William Patterson of San Francisco will plight their troth. The ceremony is to take place at the Patterson home with Rev. Wesley McAfee officiating. Miss Florence Patterson will be her sister's maid of honor and the best man will be George Hill, a fraternity brother of the groom.

Miss Patterson graduated with the 1917 class from the University of California where she was affiliated with the Alpha Gamma Delta and the Treble Clef Club. Her fiancé is a law student at the University of California, and is a member of the Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity.

Saturday afternoon, when the alumnae, together with many of the older friends and the parents of the students were informally entertained. Dahlias in autumn colors adorned the reception room.

On November 4 the students are planning to hold a bazaar for the benefit of the East Oakland Settlement along the lines of the very successful one held last winter. A number of the girls who will make their debuts in a couple of seasons are engaged in making articles for their booths for the event.

Wednesday has been set for the marriage of Miss Susan Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Parker, and Henry A. Allen, the ceremony to be held at the Parker home in Alameda, with Rev. Everett Couper, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, officiating.

The hour of the service is set for 6 o'clock in the afternoon, with a bridal dinner to follow and a reception from 8 until 10 o'clock, to which nearly 300 guests have been bidden. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. E. A. Allen and is associated with his father's publishing house in San Francisco. The future home of the young people will be across the bay.

Mrs. Theodore Benedict Lyman will be hostess next Saturday at a large bridge party to be given at her home in Alameda, entertaining guests from both sides of the bay.

November 4 has been set for the next of the regular monthly dances at the Claremont Country Club. Several entertaining features are being planned, and weather permitting, the late supper will be served out on the roof garden adjoining the ballroom.

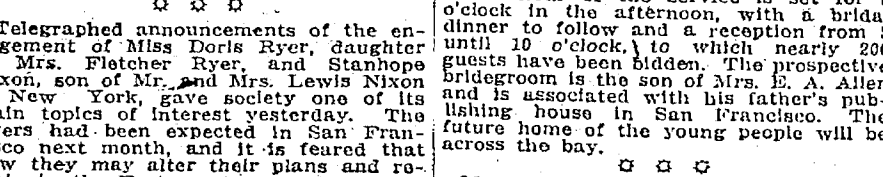

Mrs. George Burnham Dinsmore was hostess this afternoon at a tea, entertaining three hundred guests. She was assisted in receiving by nearly a score of friends, while a group of the younger girls sang at the tea tables.

The annual breakfast of the Oakland Club will be an elaborate affair of next Wednesday with a number of guests of other prominent clubs around town as guests of honor, among them Mrs. Edward Dinsmore, president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Fisher Clark, president of the Alameda district. Mrs. Charles Eutaw, wife of Mayor Eutaw, will be the hostess. Mrs. Eutaw will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Watt, New Century Club; Mrs. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, of Mills College; Mrs. Aaron Schloss, president of the Twenty-sixth Century Club; Mrs. Arthur O. Gott, Adelphi Club; Mrs. Lucien Langworthy, Alta Mira Club; Mrs. H. K. McArthur, Co. Kaitum; Mrs. John Martinson, Laurel Hill; Mrs. Charles S. Chamberlain, Mrs. George W. Miller, Mrs. Leonard Moore, Mrs. George Harrison, past presidents of the Oakland Club.

Members of the board of directors will act as hostesses, and after the men lunching an entertaining program will be given. Clubrooms in Starr King hall will be decorated with blossoms and greens.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McClure have returned from the country, where they have been for many months, and are once more at home to their friends at their residence in Ocean View Drive, Claremont.

The McClures have been enjoying the summer and early autumn at Belle Fontaine, George Hill, a fraternity brother of the groom.

REDWOOD CITY, Oct. 16.—Mrs. H. C. Slinker, formerly president of the Redwood City Women's Club and the secretary of the State Supreme Court, took Mrs. Slinker into her own hands yesterday when she found four men lurching on her estate, west of here, and drove them off.

They were discovered when Mrs. Slinker heard them shooting. She ordered them off the place and then notified the sheriff's office.

Deputy Sheriff William Hogan was sent out, but by the time he arrived the four men had obeyed Mrs. Slinker's commands and departed.

One of the men, a man named Slinker, was arrested and taken to the jail.

The other three men were released.

Expert Has Rules For Happy Life

Optimism Chief Ingredient of Formula

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The art of living happily is the finest of the fine arts.

So Dr. Charles B. Barker of Washington, D. C., told the Sunday Evening Club audience in Orchestra hall. As physical adviser at the White House, he first tried his recipe on President Taft, being the man who taught him how to decrease his weight.

He gave his Chicago audience these five rules for happiness:

One—Cultivate the habit of looking on the bright side of every experience, no matter what it is.

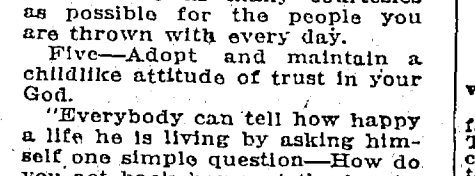

Two—Accept cheerfully the place you find yourself in today. Throw your whole soul into your work.

Four—Do as many courtesies as possible for the people you are thrown with every day.

Five—Adopt and maintain a childlike attitude of trust in your God.

"Everybody can tell how happy a life he is living by asking himself one simple question—How do you not back home at the breakfast table?"

"I used to believe that anyone could be happy with plenty of money, and automobiles, and yachts, and so on. But my experience as a physician has cured me of that. I have found the folks of that class usually the most miserable in the world. Most everybody lives a sort of double life—one on dress parade and one back in the home."

Clubwomen Hold Important Session

The nine clubs of Contra Costa county included in the Alameda district Federation of Women's Clubs held a reciprocity session in Richmond today, the guests of the Woman's Club.

A president's council this morning presided over by Mrs. Lucien Langworthy, first vice-president of the district, in the absence of Mrs. Fisher Clark, president, presided over by Mrs. Langworthy.

The afternoon program was given by the club women. Among the several who appeared on the program from Alameda county were Mrs. A. N. Altman, who spoke on the "Romance of California Names"; Mrs. L. E. Smith, who told of "Election Day at the Last Biennial"; and Mrs. Langworthy, who gave a general resume of the Biennial.

San Francisco 'Hard,' Says Charity Report

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 16.—The most generous city in the United States is Rochester, N. Y. Next in order at the head of the honor list compiled by charity experts are Hartford, Conn.; Reading, Pa.; Detroit and Pittsburgh, Pa.; Albany, N. Y.; Lowell, Mass.; Richmond, Va.; and Birmingham, N. Y., follow closely.

The hardest to extract money from are Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Minneapolis, San Francisco and St. Louis. There are three and one-half times as many charitable organizations appealing to the generosity of the public than there were a year ago. War relief organizations help to swell the list constantly. Last year the United States gave $320,000,000 to its churches.

Confessions of Roxane

By FRANCES E. WALTER

Mariam makes me an astonishing proposition. I strove to regard the matter from her viewpoint, but I could not. There was only one viewpoint for me—my own.

Mariam was as good as her word so far as entertaining me was concerned. The very next afternoon she called me early in the forenoon on the telephone and insisted that I go at once to her home.

"I have the greatest secret to tell you," she cried with her customary enthusiasm. "Beside I have been thinking of a certain matter, over and over, and I want to talk to you about it."

"With me alone?" I asked her. Somehow I did not relish the thought of meeting Mr. Gordon.

"Quite," assured Mariam. "There is no one here except the servants and Dexter."

"Who is Dexter?"

"He's the new cat. I found him on the back porch this morning when I went out to see if I could catch a glimpse of the sun. There he was perched up on his hind legs, looking at me with his big, round, blue eyes. He was so pretty, but we gave him four or five baths, and he is just as clean now as any cat you ever saw. I called him 'Dexter' because that was the name of a cat I used to have."

"I am quite sure I shall like him," I said. "And I shall not at all object to taking luncheon with him."

"This is not the secret you had to tell me, is it?" I smiled, pointing to the floor.

"No, indeed," laughed Mariam. Then she sobered quickly.

"This is a very sacred thing," she went on. "Come into the library and I will tell you about it."

I followed her into the luxuriously furnished room and was about to seat myself in a chair when Mariam drew me to the embrasure of a window.

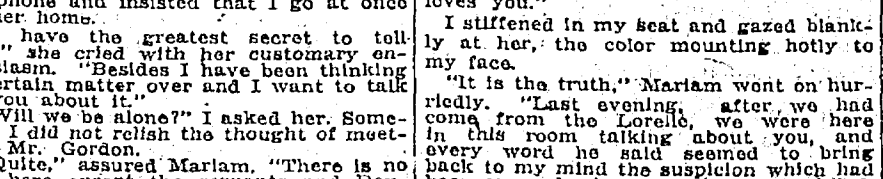

"I sat under a lonely tree—a fitting tribute to a solitary life," wrote Mrs. Alice Dobler, before taking her life by turning on the gas in her apartment. She addressed the letter to a son, a son named Polard, an employee of the Great Western Power Company, near Concord. When the police found Mrs. Dobler she had been dead several hours. Investigation by Coroner Benton showed that the woman was not in financial difficulties at the time of her suicide.

"I love her better than life," he said. "I sat very still for a while, and when he said nothing else I started to leave him, but he stopped me. Now that I had started, it seemed that he had to go."

"I think I have loved her ever since I pulled her out of that wrecked railroad car and saw her lying so still and beautiful in the moonlight. It was a new feeling, and I did not recognize it at first. But as the days and nights went by I realized what it was. I knew that Roxane was the one woman in the world for me."

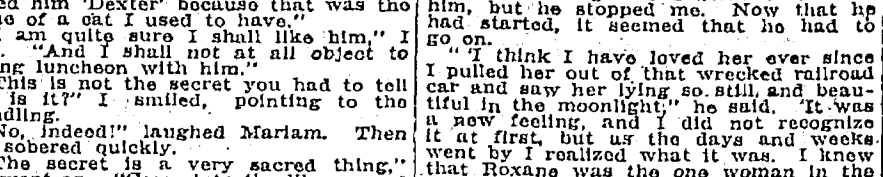

"The hardness in his throat would not let him continue immediately. When he had at last mastered himself he continued:

the classroom. Lieutenants of the two leagues are busy at the various colleges and universities lining up support for the respective candidates and inducing many of the students to join the campaign forces as debaters or organizers. So far as campaign activities are concerned, the result will be a stand-off; but so far as national advantage is concerned there will be a distinct acquisition to political organizations in the recruiting of young college men.

Party lines have crumbled somewhat in recent years, and there is not the old tendency among young men to take their politics from their fathers. In many cases they strike out for themselves, and this is a good tendency, so long as the choice of a political party is made intelligently and upon accurate information. If the young college men are given a real interest in politics, they are more likely to study the history and evolution of principles of the two political parties and make a choice that will be based upon patriotism and national efficiency. Not only will the two parties be benefited by a raising of political standards, but the nation itself will be benefited by the higher tests of political integrity.

CALLS WIFE TOO FAT FOR AUTOMOBILE

In Divorce Complaint Filed by Spouse of Restaurateur Woman Rival Who Was Slim, Is Named As Co-Respondent

Mrs. Petersen Charges Neglect and Asks for a Division of Property, Including Automobile and Community Cash

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Placing the responsibility for her marital troubles on the shoulders of Mrs. Stella Kirk, whom she names as co-respondent, Mrs. Virginia Petersen this morning filed suit for divorce against Charles Petersen, proprietor of a string of restaurants in this city and a man of considerable wealth and prominence. That she was neglected for the other woman, that she was humiliated and told that she was not wanted, that there was only room in her husband's automobile for Stella, and that her rival was given carte blanche in his cafes, are all embodied in Mrs. Petersen's complaint.

She avers that she took Mrs. Kirk automobile riding on numerous occasions and when she protested and asked him to give her a few rides, he replied:

"You are too fat. There is only room for Stella."

All the employees were informed that they must treat Mrs. Kirk with consideration, the complaint says. On the occasion of an automobile accident in San Mateo county, the wife charges Mrs. Kirk was thrown from her husband's machine, suffering a broken arm and was taken to the Red Cross Hospital, where she was registered as Mrs. Petersen.

Protesting against these and other alleged acts of inhuman treatment, Mrs. Petersen asserts that her spouse had her hair cut only out of expediency and that he didn't care for her any more. She enumerates property which is known to her and asks for half of it and the custody of their children. She says that besides her business, her husband has $25,000 in cash, a $3000 automobile and $800 worth of diamonds. The Petersens were wedded in 1911.

Pet Cat Buried With Formal Ceremonies

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—"Tabby" died Saturday. She was killed by a piece of timber falling from a building.

"Tabby" was a pet of the men working on a new building near Stewart and Mission streets.

At noon the Harbor police station got a hurry call.

"Mob gathering in lot at Beale and Mission," said an excited voice.

The patrol wagons arrived in time to see a little wooden slab placed on a mound of earth.

"Tabby" had been buried with military honors. A vast crowd had been attracted.

Many Enter Work in Spirit of Contest to Help Unfortunate

Departing from their usual custom of holding a dinner dansant or similar benefit in the fall of every year, the Alameda County Anti-Tuberculosis Society has inaugurated a permanent collection of old papers and magazines and in which the young and the old of the community are invited to join.

A large box, capable of holding one ton of old papers, has been placed in every Oakland public school yard by the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, and as often as the boxes are filled the prizes are to be selected from a series of handsome engravings and photographs illustrating the various works of literature studied in the schools. The Anti-Tuberculosis Society conducts a free tuberculosis clinic at 2909 Broadway.

The officers and directors of the society are: Harrison S. Robinson, president; Hon. William H. Donahue, first vice-president; Mrs. Allen G. Freeman, second vice-president; Fred B. Taylor, treasurer; Miss Annie Florence Brown, secretary; executive committee, Dr. A. S. Kelly, Rev. Clinton Macon, Mrs. Mark L. Regan, Charles E. Snook, Dr. Edward von Adelung, executive secretary, T. C. Cuvelier.

Too Late to Libel First President?

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 16.—Whether it is possible in this day criminally to libel George Washington by publicly charging that the father of his country indulged too freely in strong drink and other things unbecoming a gentleman and a scholar, will soon be decided by the State Supreme Court, which today began hearing arguments in the case of Paul Haffer, Tacoma Socialist, convicted by a lower court and sentenced to six months in jail.

Preston Higgins, secretary to Mayor Davis, boasts an esthetic sense. For more than a year, now, it has been his hobby, not to say passion, at the sight of the official seal of the city of Oakland. So Higgins had the council today adopt a resolution appropriating $40 with which to purchase a new design.

Former San Francisco Girl on Battle Line

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Bringing back news that her daughter, Mrs. W. Allen, will drive a staff ambulance on the western battle front in Europe so that she might be near her husband, Major Allen, of the Second Battalion, Canadian Pioneer, Mrs. Frederick W. d'Evelyn returned to San Francisco from London, where she was the guest of Lady Stanley, widow of Henry M. Stanley, an explorer, and an old friend of Dr. Frederick W. d'Evelyn.

According to Mrs. d'Evelyn, her daughter, formerly the widely known Bernice d'Evelyn, is now learning all that there is to be known about the motor car and first air to the injured. She became Mrs. Allen at Savoy Chapel, London, on July 2.

STRAIN OF TRIAL TELLS ON M'NUTT

Billings' Counsel Unable to Quit Hospital to Appear in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Worn out by the strain attendant upon his strenuous defense of Warren K. Billings, Attorney Maxwell McNutt is confined to a local hospital suffering from a nervous breakdown. He was therefore not present this morning when Billings, Thomas J. Mooney, Mrs. Rona Mooney, Edward Nolan and Israel Weisberg, indicted for murder, appeared before Superior Judge Frank Dunne to have their cases set for trial. Defendants were represented by Attorney John J. Lawler and with the consent of the district attorney were set over until November 5.

Positive announcement was made today of the trial of Edward Mooney, labor leader and agitator, before Judge Griffin on October 20. This will be the second in the series of bomb trials.

In court today were all the relatives of the Mooneys and a number of the supporters of the accused and it was evident that something more than an ordinary continuance of the case was expected.

The defendants were indicted in connection with the preparedness parade bomb outrage of July 22.

POSSE TRACKS MURDERER TO DESERT LAIR

Pitched Rifle Duel Keeps Off Officers As Antonio Hernandez Races for Colorado River When Sheriff Finds Dead Son

Second Detail Takes the Field to Kill Mexican, Who Is Now Seeking to Escape in Wild Country; Capture Is Certain

NEEDLES, Cal., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Antonio Hernandez, whose husband has been hunted since late yesterday by a posse, died today, making three dead as the result of a quarrel in the Hernandez home yesterday. Hernandez' young son died an hour after he was shot, supposedly while defending his mother. Guadalupe Rivera, a son-in-law, shot last night while leading a posse pursuing the hunted man, died at midnight.

During the night Hernandez appeared at the Needles ice plant, it was said, and declared he would "get out," then vanished in the dense brush along the Colorado river, which armed men beat all night and today in their search for him.

Hiding in the brush and defying the posse following him, Hernandez is at bay somewhere near here. The first posse, which turned back for reinforcements after one of the deputies, a son-in-law of the fugitive, had been fatally wounded, today took the trail again with more men.

Hernandez, after the trouble in his home, fled to the river banks, armed with a rifle. A posse, hastily organized by his son-in-law and the sheriff, started in pursuit, the son-in-law leading them to the place where Hernandez disappeared into the river brush. Here the fugitive, hiding in the bushes, opened fire on the posse, which retired to Needles for reinforcements.

Today the systematic search will be made along the river bank with a large armed force to capture the wanted man.

Hernandez had just returned from San Berardino when he went to rejoin the posse, which was on its way back from a previous gunshot wound.

Mail Clerks Ordered to Handle With Care

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Chocolate creams must be protected at all hazards.

Such is the order from Washington to the parcel post department of the postoffice here.

All candy boxes must be marked "fragile" by the senders and must be handled with care, says the order.

WOMAN AIDS BURGLAR IN S. F. CRIME

Female Lookout Escapes As Police Trap Springs on Man Who Endeavors to Loot Saloon in Which Patrolmen Hide

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Aided by a woman accomplice who stood on the outside intent on warning him of possible police interference, Charles Powers, a blacksmith, broke into the saloon of Patrick McGinnis at Sycamore and Guerrero streets, at 3:30 this morning, and walked into the arms of waiting patrolmen who had concealed themselves behind the bar.

In the confusion that followed and during the pursuit of Powers, in which he managed to make his way again to the street, the woman, of whose presence the officers had been ignorant, succeeded in getting away.

Powers was captured in a hall of bullets and booked at the Mission station for burglary.

It was Powers' well-laid plans to ransack the saloon that were indirectly responsible for his capture. He planned wisely but too well.

Visiting the bar room earlier in the evening, he surreptitiously stole the key to the side door and left carelessly in a corner a fragment of sheet iron.

Both were discovered by McGinnis, who notified the police. Lieutenant Boyd instructed Patrolmen John Houlahan and Eugene Riley to conceal themselves in the place.

From midnight to 3:30 the officers stood watch. Then the side door was quietly opened with the key. Powers slipped into the telephone booth and began fiddling with the organ box with the sheet iron.

The officers ordered him to throw up his hands, but he fled. The chase lasted for three blocks and a dozen shots were fired before his capture was effected. Bystanders, including a woman, saw the woman with a suitcase had stood anxiously looking up and down the street and had fled in the opposite direction as Powers dashed forth. They have a good description of her and are seeking her whereabouts. Powers refused to reveal his address. On his person were found players and a flash light.

FERRIES IN FOG DODGE COLLISION

Oakland and Santa Clara in Peril, But Captains Reverse Engines in Time to Avert the Threatened Bay Disaster

Passengers on Board Both of the Boats Alarmed When Each Looms Up in the Mist in the Track of the Other

Prompt reversal of their engines and a quick change of course averted a collision in fog this morning between the crowded Southern Pacific ferry steamers Oakland and Santa Clara.

There was excitement among the commuters on both vessels when each loomed up through the thick fog blanket in each other's course in the middle of the bay. With still several hundred feet between, the vessels were sent full speed astern when their proximity was noticed.

The Santa Clara, in command of Captain Stanwood E. Talbot, was Oakland bound, with more than 1000 passengers, while the Oakland, Captain J. Hogan, was crossing to San Francisco with 2500 passengers.

Sadie Hooper's Doll Safe; Autos Burned

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Little Sadie Hooper loves her doll, "Cutey" very much indeed. For this reason, Mrs. John Hooper, 345 Golden Gate avenue, accompanied her while she went back through their burning home and rescued the toy.

The fire, which had its origin in the auto repair shop at 847 Golden Gate avenue, burned ten automobiles, the building where they were waiting care, damaged three adjoining structures and almost consumed Sadie Hooper's "Cutey."

A three-story building at 857 Golden Gate avenue was badly damaged as were apartments at 841 Golden Gate avenue, on the other side of the garage. Hoopers and residents in the buildings adjoining were awakened by the red glow of the flames close at hand, but five lodgers in the Hooper house were warned by Mrs. Hooper and Sadie, who afterward sought safety of outdoors and came back to rescue the valuable doll.

BUILDERS SHOULD USE WESTERN WOODS

Good Qualities Embrace Beauty and Utility; Variety of Species of Coast Lumber

By A. B. WASTELL

The lumber industry of the Pacific Coast comes next to agriculture in importance, both in the value of the product and the number of men employed. The progress of the lumber industry in California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho is a big factor in the general prosperity of these states.

We have on this Coast eight primary species of timber, viz., the Douglas fir (Oregon pine), California redwood, California sugar pine, Western white pine, Western hemlock, Western spruce, Western cedar and Port Orford cedar. The timber of these four Pacific states comprises five-eighths of all the standing timber in the United States. Of the several species, Douglas fir (Oregon pine) has the greatest stand, as well as the greatest annual output. The state of Washington produces more lumber and shingles than any state in the Union, representing practically one-seventh of the $2,000,000,000 feet produced in the United States.

DOUGLAS FIR OF OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

Of these species, the Douglas fir (Oregon pine) represents the general utility wood, being used for the greatest number of purposes, so that in building a house everything from the foundation up with the exception of the shingles, could be satisfactorily constructed of Douglas fir (Oregon pine). Interior and exterior finish, joists, studs, rafters and flooring. For structural uses where strength is needed in connection with reasonable lightness, Douglas fir (Oregon pine) is better than any other wood that is produced and can be obtained in large sizes and long lengths to suit any requirement. Machinery Hall at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition contained 6,000,000 feet of Douglas fir (Oregon pine) and is a splendid example of

To Name Heads of New Year's Fete

Harry G. Williams, president of the Merchants' Exchange, will appoint the committees which will be in charge of the New Year's celebration at the regular meeting of the exchange tomorrow night. The exchange always has taken a leading part in the celebration and this year many new features will be added. A special "stunts" committee will be in charge of this part of the program. Big musical numbers, a great fireworks display, an all-night ball at the Municipal Auditorium and other features will be given. It is planned to have the boy scouts take a special part, this feature being in charge of Harry G. Williams and Charles H. J. Truman, who is a member of the executive committee of Oakland council of boy scouts.

Hibernians Plan Gay Night at Park

Wednesday evening will be Irish night at Idora Park Indian Mid-summer Carnival. The entertainment committee from the A. O. H. and Ladies' Auxiliary, who have the affair in charge, expect that the entertainment and dance will be a great social success.

Hon. Lorin B. Handley of Los Angeles will be the orator of the occasion. An exhibition drill by the Hibernian Rifles of San Francisco will be given, while Professor Youngman, with his class of pupils will sing "Ireland Must be Free."

Following are the committees having the affair in charge: P. J. Louell, D. M. Murphy, John E. Kelly, Bryan Nolan, John Cox, Mrs. John Bowen, Mrs. P. Ryan, Mrs. J. Cummings, Mrs. Frances Kiehl Kiehl.

OPEN-AIR ROOMS SLEEPING PORCHES

The Revolt Against the Shut-in Houses of Our Forefathers.

As with most significant movements, the cry for out-of-door living came as a reaction against the shut-in lives led by the forefathers of this country. These people built their homes, designing them primarily as defenses against enemies and shelters from severe climatic conditions. But with advancement of civilization, Indian raids subsided and the custom of dwelling together in communities made even the climate more sympathetic; still the people, dominated by inherited traditions, clung closely to their fire-sides, peeping out from curtained windows as if in dread of the open country. It was then that maladies in many forms knocked loudly at the doors of these self-imprisoned people. The note for fresh reorganized air was sounded as a necessity of life.

The veranda, recognized in Europe as a purely American invention, was the first response to this sentiment. Spare moments began to be spent out of doors at some favorite sport or other, while later it was acknowledged that even the time of sleeping might be given over to storing the system with ozone. As a result, sleeping porches of many and varied designs amplified the daytime life spent on the veranda. Windows, besides, were made larger than ever before, many of them so as to be moved altogether.

Today the wish to get as much of the out of doors into the home as possible has become intensified. Some find that they can convert a back porch into a sleeping porch, others that it is possible for them to build a recessed porch suited especially to their taste. Again, there are those who let in the out of doors by removable windows, in which case they are able to live in rooms, acting as links between the home shelter and the healthfulness of open-country freedom.

IMPORTANCE OF WOOD FINISHING

Care and Attention and Both Labor and Material Must Be First-class.

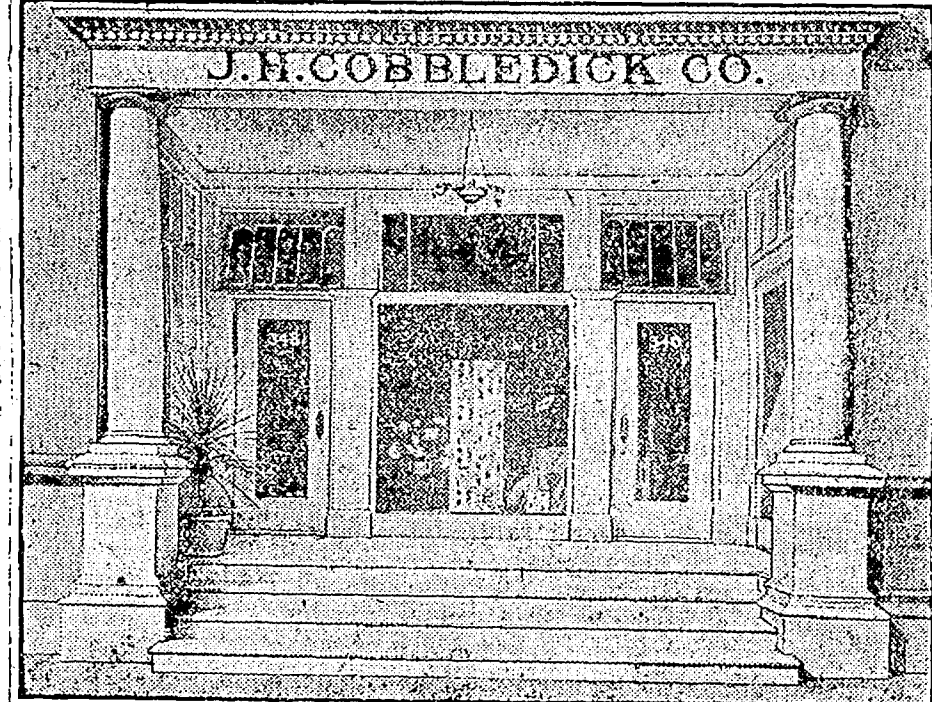

This finishing of western woods in home building is not ordinarily given the care and attention that is used in finishing imported woods, the first cost of which is ever so much greater, so that economy should not be practiced to the detriment of the finishing of our Western woods. Equal time and labor should be devoted to get best results.

The aim of the wood finisher is to get as beautiful and as harmonious effects as possible with as little expense of money and labor as he may. At the same time it must be remembered that there is "no excellence without labor," and that, however good the material used, there must be proper labor in preparing the surface and in performing the work. It does not follow that a high degree of skill is necessary or that a large expense must be incurred in order to give a satisfactory and harmonious result. Very often the experienced workman who follows closely the instructions of the architect and the manufacturer will secure better results than the more experienced workman who does not give thought and effort to his work. Color and style are the two important questions in all interior finish. No general rules can be offered, as each house, and oftentimes each room, must be studied in itself as well as its relation to surroundings and to other rooms. The aim is to make the entire house cheerful and harmonious. Wood as it is turned over by the carpenter, particularly machine sanded, even though specified to be perfectly smooth, is not as a rule sufficiently smooth to give the best results in finishing.

The first essential to beautiful effects is a perfectly smooth surface; therefore, before finishing woodwork, floor or furniture, the surface must be carefully sanded with fine sandpaper, rubbing it with the grain of the wood, brushing off carefully all dust; then going over it again and again, brushing until it is perfectly smooth and clean. Not only must the surface be smooth, but it must be thoroughly dry. If the room is damp and the wood moist, paint or varnish will not cling to it. Extra care in finishing the

Roisterers' Pranks Draws Gun Fire

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Charles Ogilvie of 1150 Webster street thought the European war had been brought to his door this morning. When he climbed his steps he was made the target for stones, tin cans and other missiles hurled by a gang of midnight revelers. He was struck several times and the glass panel of his door was shattered and the neighborhood awakened. Fearing for his life Ogilvie obtained a revolver and firing into the air, frightened away his assailants.

MISSOULA, Mont., Oct. 16.—Johnny Dawson, 3 years old, and Olive Dawson, aged 5, children of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dawson of Stevensville, Mont., were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their ranch home, according to word received here. Eva Dawson, aged 13, received burns which are expected to prove fatal.

The mother and her six children were alone in their little frame house when the fire broke out. Mrs. Dawson awoke to find the place on fire. She roused her children and got all of them out of the house but Johnny and Olive who, frightened by the flames, ran back and perished.

work is required because varnish brings out all the inequalities and magnifies defects. Even a thumb-nail scratch will be magnified when the wood is varnished.

VARNISHING IN EXPOSED SITUATIONS.

In applying outside varnish finishes to doors, outside trim, porch posts, etc., that are exposed to the elements, the best results are obtained in this way: Thoroughly smooth the wood with sandpaper and then apply a heavy coat of oil to make it dry quickly, allowing it to thoroughly penetrate the wood; this prevents the absorption of water. In the oil make it dry quickly, allowing it to thoroughly penetrate the wood; this prevents the absorption of water. In the oil make it dry quickly, allowing it to thoroughly penetrate the wood; this prevents the absorption of water.

FINISHING FLOORS OF DOUGLAS FIR.

For finishing new Douglas fir hemlock floors, first see that the surface of the wood is perfectly smooth; (this is of much importance, as it is impossible to obtain good results unless the floor has been well sanded before the finish is put on.) After the floor has been well sanded with sandpaper apply one coat of a good grade of wood filler, following with three coats of white shellac, papering between coats. If a high polish is desired, the last coat should be thinned down with raw linseed oil and benzine (mixed ratio 1 to 3) so as to allow it to thoroughly penetrate the pores of the wood. Wipe off with a dry cloth any filler which remains on the surface before applying the first coat of shellac. This first coat of shellac should be thinned with a denatured alcohol, allowing it to easily penetrate the wood. The second coat of shellac should be applied heavy and the last coat should be applied as heavy as it can be worked. Orange shellac should not be used, as it darkens the floor. There are several methods of floor finishing used. The one here given is economical, very serviceable, and is easily applied, and also dries quickly. Care should be taken in obtaining a good grade of shellac, as it will finish harder and give better satisfaction than cheaper grades.

Some finishers prefer the use of varnish for finish after the filler and first coat of shellac have been applied. Varnish will give the floor a little higher gloss than the process here given, but it does not wear as well and also is more easily marred than the floor finish here given. If the varnish finish is desired, the care should be used in selecting the varnish, as only the best grade of floor varnish should be used.

The process we have outlined for finishing with shellac is for the very best class of work, and if used as directed will result in a highly polished floor which will wear well and give satisfactory service. The use of a wood filler is recommended, but may be omitted in floors where the wear is not severe. It gives a better body to the finish and the better effects obtained by its use more than repay the extra labor and cost.

Floors should be cleaned when the finish has been given. The best way to do this is to restore the original finish is to go over the floor with a cloth dampened with benzine and then rub on floor with a soft cloth and rub dry with a dry cloth.

DOCK &amp; DECK

The fog along the Pacific Coast has been doing considerable damage to shipping, although on the California coast there has not been as much trouble as was reported from the northern ports. The Japanese steamer, Yamashiro, was grounded near Diamond Head, and the Itakushima Maru was grounded from 9:30 a. m. until 5 p. m., when the tugs managed to pull her from the beach. When the Itakushima was launched she was named the Duke of Pile, and later her name was changed to the Pile. She is to load for the Orient.

The steamer Landing is waiting for this port as she carries a large cargo and is to complete her load here. Since there has been so many accidents from foggy weather, the pilots on the Sound are beginning to use "safety first."

With 11,000 railroad ties, the steam schooner Newbury, Captain Mattson, arrived here today from Jenners' Island. This is the third trip the craft has made with railroad ties.

In tow of the steamer Captain A. J. Litch, barge number 31, arrived at Point Richmond this morning from Seattle. The barge will load for Portland, Oregon.

The steamer Shua Yak, which was ashore at Point Sur, has arrived in port. She was salvaged by Hayside Brothers and towed to port yesterday by the Red Star tug and placed on Mission street as she was on her beam ends. Today she was under full steam and is being towed to Oakland harbor where she will be placed on one of the local drydocks for repairs. She went ashore July 21.

The steam schooner Bandon, also given up by the underwriters, is at the dock and will be towed to Oakland for repairs. She went ashore at Port Orford, September 1.

VESSELS ARE SALVED AFTER BEING GIVEN UP. The tug Marie L. Hanlon returned home this morning after an absence of several days. She was sent to Point Sur by the wrecking barges of the Hayside company to save the steamer Shua Yak. This was the first trip this tug has made out to sea.

SAYS U. S. WILL TAKE RAILROADS

Intercollegiate Socialist Club to Fight for Public Ownership.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Uncle Sam is going into the railroad business within the next decade, according to Benjamin C. Marsh, New York, executive secretary of the real propaganda committee of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society, an organization backed morally and financially by Amos Pinchot, Marsh said. Every railroad in the United States—255,000 miles of them—will pass from private ownership within ten years to be operated in the interests of the public instead of the interests of private.

ACCUSED OF MURDER. VISALIA, Oct. 16.—After an all-night search by officers, Ramon Padilla, a quartermaster of the Visalia Hill, near here, was arrested and held at the county jail on a charge of murder, growing out of the death of Barlas, a fellow worker.

STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER

It's Mercury! Attacks the Bones, Salivates and Makes You Sick.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't salivate. Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless. Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Advertisement.

Daughter of Novelist to Appear Before Footlights

JOAN LONDON, daughter of novelist, to take leading part in Oakland High School play.

Joan London Cast in Role of High School Production at Opera House

Oakland High School Dramatic Club will present Burles's clever comedy, "The Admirable Crichton," at the Municipal Theatre Friday evening. Among the leads, Joan London, daughter of Jack London, is cast for an important part in the role of Twenny, a nondescript servant in the household of an English lord. Though an amateur, she has shown unusual promise along dramatic lines.

The cast is as follows: Earl Loam ..... Albert Butler Lord Brocklehurst ..... Raymond Wallace Hon. Ernest Woolley ..... Frederick Teague Mr. Crichton ..... John Reynolds Rev. John Freeman ..... Edward Hogan Naval Officer ..... Harold Watson Tompsett ..... Gerald Gray Fleury ..... Harold Overton Rolleston ..... Leo Murrell Stabe Boy ..... Ira Merrill John ..... Fulmer Maud Pango Boy ..... Paper From Refuse of Hemp Trade, Latest

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Specialists of the department of agriculture are convinced that a satisfactory quality of book paper can be made from hemp hurds, the waste stalk fragments produced in preparing hemp fiber for the market. A report on the subject, says that commercial tests made in co-operation with a paper manufacturer demonstrated that hurds can be reduced chemically to paper stock by the soda process under practices only slightly different from those employed for the manufacture of pulp from poplar wood. Some of the waste bleached as well as heating was necessary. At present about 5000 tons of hurds are produced from hemp grown in Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and California.

Philippine Congress Opens With Ceremony

MANILA, Oct. 16.—The Philippine Congress was inaugurated yesterday in the presence of twenty thousand persons. Sergio Osmeña and Manuel Quezon, former Filipino delegate to the United States Congress, were elected speaker of the House and president of the Senate. Governor General Harrison read to the members of Congress congratulatory messages from President Wilson and Newton D. Baker, secretary of war. Mr. Harrison then read his own message in Spanish. In it he congratulated the islands and announced that hereafter the department heads would be Filipinos. In joint session the Congress voted a message of thanks to President Wilson.

Constipation the Father of Many Ills. Of the numerous ills that afflict humanity a large share start with constipation. Keep your bowels regular and they may be avoided. When a laxative is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

Railroad Man Shot in Chinese Laundry

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 16.—An employee of the Southern Pacific shorts at Roseville, "Con" Murphy, was shot and instantly killed at the Quong Sing Lee laundry. What led up to the shooting the police have been unable to find out today, there being no eyewitnesses to the affair. Charlie Fong, owner of the shop, was seriously beaten up in the melee and may die. According to a report to the police by Elmer Wirts, a Chinese rushed out of the shop and attacked him (Wirts), at the same time reaching for his hip pocket. Murphy caught the Chinese and Wirts walked on, thinking the affair was over. Before he had gone ten feet he heard a shot and before he could call the police four more were fired. Three Chinese fled from the building. Two Chinese are held in the city jail, Fong Wing and Fong Que Mow.

BANKER TO BE SOLDIER. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Ettore Avonelli, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, has been called to join the Italian colors, and will leave San Francisco early next month to sail for Rome to enter a training camp there as a private soldier.

American Officer, in England, Is Promoted

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 16.—Captain E. G. Shepherd, former United States army officer, assigned to duty as instructor with the Alabama National Guard, who resigned and joined the English army when the war broke out, has been promoted five times and now is a captain and brevet major in the distinguished service order of Great Britain, according to word received here. Captain Shepherd was wounded four times at Ypres and other points on the western front "somewhere in France" and was severely wounded in the Dardanelles. He was blind and paralyzed for months from the wounds, but has regained his sight and has been sent to the British battalion in Mesopotamia.

SEMINARY HEAD DIES. NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The Rev. Dr. Francis Brown, president of Union Theological Seminary since 1908, is dead of heart disease at his home here, in his sixty-seventh year. He had been in poor health about a year, but assumed his duties at the commencement of the fall term at the seminary.

Moths Fly From Cannon's Stogies

Says Former Governor's Active Press Agent

MASSILLON, O., Oct. 16.—The "long black stogies" worn by Uncle Joe Cannon, former speaker of the national house of representatives, immortalized by cartoonists, are excellent eradicators at 50 cents a piece. At least that is what James Knox of Danville, Ill., advance agent for former Governor Frank Handley of Indiana and party of prohibition lecturers, declares. Knox says he knows, because his wife has kept one of Uncle Joe's cigars, given him by the former speaker, in her trunk for several years and not a moth has disturbed the contents.

Shoots Woman, Then Turns Gun on Self

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 16.—Mitchell Gonova, 43 years old, shot and probably fatally wounded Mrs. Allice M. Raymond, shot and beat her brother, Cook A. Oakes, and then after firing a bullet into his own body, slashed his throat with a butcher knife. His wounds also are expected to result fatally. The attack, which occurred in Mrs. Raymond's home yesterday is said to have followed her rejection of a proposal of marriage from Gonova.

Lumberman Killed in Logging Mishap

YREKA, Oct. 16.—While Robert McPhae, a resident of San Francisco, and an employee of the Wood Lumber Company, was logging in the woods near Yreka, he was run over by a logging train and instantly killed. He had been employed by the company but one month. The deceased leaves a widow and two small children. A verdict of accidental death was returned at the inquest. McPhae was 31 years old. The remains were shipped to San Francisco.

Every garment warranted as represented or money will be promptly refunded.

3rd Anniversary

The Sale that got the wild approval of the entire community

Crowds have besieged us. It was awful! The Price Reductions as our Birthday Gift rocked the ready-to-wear market to its foundation. The high priced stores were shocked at the new price quotations. Women rushed to buy at the first break of news to relieve the tension of high prices.

The renewal of the selling at those amazing reductions will be resumed tomorrow morning.

The prices have spoken. We now repeat our astounding birthday offering so that every woman at the opening of the season can get her garments at end-of-the-season prices.
